H. F. Knight, Investment
Broker, One of Large
Contributors—$190,535
Received by La Follette Headquarters.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—The Republican national campaign organization had received gross contributions of $1,714,317 up to Oct. 10, last. W. V. Hodges, treasurer of the national committee, testified today before the special Senate Investigating Committee.

The net contributions totaled $1,343,959, the remainder having been contributed for the congressional and senatorial, and in some instances State campaigns, Hodges testified.

The total contributions made direct to the La Follette-Wheeler campaign headquarters up to the deadline were $190,535. Congressman John M. Nelson, national manager of the independent presidential campaign, told the committee. Expenditures by the organization in the same time aggregated $155,002, Nelson said.

Democratic Details Lacking.
The committee did not get precise information as to Democratic contributions and expenditures.
Lincoln Dixon, manager of Western headquarters, said his division had received and expended $32,- 500, exclusive of rentals paid by the National Committee.

Dixon said all of the $32,500 except $600 had come from the Democratic National Committee.
The $500 was contributed on Oct.
7 by George E. Brennan, Democratic leader of Illinois, he said, at a time when the Western headquarters was "short."

Chairman Borah of the committee wanted to know if Dixon knew of any funds being underwritten for the Democratic party.

"I regret to say that I do not," Dixon replied. "The witness was absent."

Hodges told the committee that the $1,714,317 collected by the Republican organization had come from 16,902 contributors, the largest contributor being $25,000.

"Those contributing from $1 to $50 numbered 14,962," he said.
"Those giving from $100 to $500
numbered 1448; those giving from $501 to $1000 numbered 287; those contributing from $1001 to $2500
numbered 105; those giving from $2501 to $5000 numbered 78; those giving from $5001 to $10,000 numbered 14, and those contributing over $10,000 numbered 12."

Hodges listed expenditures as follows:
Publicity, $437,000, including
"newspaper service," the amount of which was not listed; speakers' bureau, $105,000; colored bureau, $21,850; research bureau, $3000;
women's bureau, $19,850; labor bureau, $46,425; college bureau, $24,760; club bureau, $2671; foreign bureau, $799; Vermont college bureau, $13,413; California caravan, $31,413; administration expenses, Republican national headquarters, $215,908;
senatorial campaign committee, $80,800; Washington
headquarters, $21,384; petty cash expenditures, $44,000.

Hodges was unable to give, off-hand, the names of those who had contributed $10,000 or more to the Republican fund, except that he knew William Wrigley Jr. of Chicago had contributed $25,000. He was requested to prepare a detailed statement during the noon recess of the committee.

List of Big Contributors.
When the committee reconvened Hodges gave this list of those contributing $10,000 or more to the Republican fund:

Ten thousand dollars—B. A. C. Schick, Chicago; Arthur W. Cullen, Glen Ellyn, Ill.; Albert W. Harris, Chicago; Charles G. Dawes, Evanston, Ill.; Harry F. Knight, St. Louis; A. E. Carlton, Colorado Springs, Colo.

Fifteen thousand dollars—Union League Club, Philadelphia, representing collections from its members; Horace C. Jones, treasurer of the National Campaign Committee, Philadelphia, probably representing part of a sum previously collected for the national campaign.

JANET L. COLLINS SUES TO ANNUL MARRIAGE

Sequel to Her Impetuous Elopement With Jose Francisco Mariategui, Peruvian.

Filing of a marriage annulment suit in Circuit Court today was the cold sequel of the abruptly ended romance of Miss Janet Lee Collins of 5 Hortense place and Jose Francisco Mariategui, secretary of the Peruvian legation at Rome.

The bride now seeks to have set aside the impetuous marriage of Tuesday afternoon.

The suit was filed in the maiden name of Miss Collins, a minor, through her father, William Douglas Collins, as next friend. The petition sets forth that the couple became acquainted last summer, without explaining that this occurred when the Collins family was touring in Peru. It alleges that Mariategui followed Miss Collins to St. Louis and "by false and fraudulent statements and artifice and overpersuasion and use of all sorts of alluring and improper promises and statements, finally persuaded her to be married."

Further, it is alleged, the defendant induced the plaintiff to make the false statement that she was of legal age in obtaining a marriage license at Clayton, where they were married by a Justice of the Peace, without knowledge or consent of the bride's parents. The couple returned to the Collins home.
It is set forth, and the same day Mariategui left St. Louis
"with no intention of returning."

Frank A. Thompson, counsel for the plaintiff, said that Mariategui presumably had gone to New York and that an effort would be made to have him served there with notice of the suit. Miss Collins, who is a Mary Institute graduate, was a maid at the 1923 World Propher ball and made her debut last November.

can nominee for Vice President,
will speak at the Coliseum Wednesday, Oct. 29, at 8 p. m. It was announced last night by W. F. Phares, chairman of the Republican State Committee.

The City Committee plans a torchlight parade and a demonstration, but final arrangements have not been completed.

Secretary of Labor Davis will speak here next Tuesday, but arrangements have not been completed.

Dirigible Will Appear Over Several Cities on Flight Expected to End Tomorrow Evening.

By the Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 16.—
The Shenandoah passed over Los Angeles at 12:39 p. m., after passing over Long Beach at 12:23. The flagship of the fleet paid its respects to the battle fleet by manuvering over the dreadnaughts off San Clemente Island.

By the Associated Press.
SAN DIEGO, Cal., Oct. 16.—The navy dirigible, the Shenandoah, which crossed the continent last week, left its mooring mast at North Island this morning at 9:12 o'clock and after a short flight over the extreme southern portion of the city, turned its nose northward over the ocean, enroute to Camp Lewis, Washington, where another mooring mast is waiting to receive the airship. She is expected to arrive there tomorrow evening.

The dirigible had been at North Island aviation field here for five days because of inclement weather reports from the North Pacific Coast.

The battle fleet stationed at San Pedro will have its first look at the most recent addition to the fighting forces in the Pacific, if tentative plans of the Shenandoah's officers carry. After circling over San Pedro, Pasadena and Los Angeles, she will head north, again, flying over Santa Barbara, enroute to San Francisco, which city she should reach by sunset this evening.
Fifteen Rockwell Field army airplanes will fly with the Shenandoah as far north as Los Angeles.

"The successful voyage of the ZR-3 across the Atlantic Ocean American continent should give the public and the commercial world to the practicality of rigid airships for transporting mail, high-class freight and passengers across land or water," Admiral Moffet, head of the Naval Bureau of Aeronautics, said yesterday.

"The primary aim of the Navy Department in operating the Shenandoah and the ZR-3 is to demonstrate whether this can be done and I feel that the successful voyage of the two ships have gone far to prove that the Navy's confidence is fully justified and that its generous pioneering in this comparatively untried field of transportation should repay the nation
a thousand fold in coming years."

Lieutenant-Commander Zachary Landowne of the Shenandoah sent his congratulations by radio to Dr.
Hugo Eckener, commander of the ZR-2.

MILICENT ROGERS' FATHER WON'T EVEN TALK OF COURT

Her Mother Sails for Europe, but Not to See Count About Reconciliation, He Says.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—A reconciliation between the Countess Salm, the former Millicent Rogers, and her husband, Count Salm von Hoogstraten, is not even to be talked about, according to the Countess' father, Col. H. H. Rogers, who came to the sailing of the Berengaria yesterday to see his wife and her father, George H.
Benjamin, sail for Southampton.

Col. Rogers was asked if his wife
while abroad would see the Count,
and he replied with emphasis, "No,
thank God; she will not."

When asked directly if a reconciliation between his daughter and the Count was being considered,
he replied, "That is a subject I do not even care to discuss."

Col. Rogers said his wife was going abroad with her father in order to visit their son, H. H. Rogers Jr., a student at Oxford University.
Benjamin said his trip abroad was a combination of business and pleasure.

All of the Facts
vs.
Half of the Facts

Readers of the classified
"Automobiles" columns set to read impression of value,
but not the whole of the facts.

That comes when they visit the showrooms of the dealers and examine the cars for sale
there at moderate prices.

Then the facts which cannot be pictured in an advertisement become apparent and substantiate the further fact that most everybody in St. Louis can afford a good car.

Let an investigation today show you how you can drive your own car at reasonable cost.

WIFE GETS QUICK DIVORCE FROM WOOSTER LAMBERT

Decree of Separation From Millionaire Sportsman Granted 40 Minutes After Filing of Petition.

INDIGNITIES AND COLDNESS CHARGED

Judge Hogan Hears Testimony in Chambers at the Court of Domestic Relations.

Within 40 minutes after the filing of her petition for divorce, Mrs.
Wooster Lambert obtained a decree of separation from her husband, one of the city's young millionaires, who has a "flair" for sports.

Lambert formally entered his appearance and did not contest the petition. His wife charged general indignities, coldness and indifference.

The petition was filed at the Broadway courthouse at 2:15 o'clock and taken away by the attorney before reporters could obtain the grounds on which Mrs.
Lambert sought divorce. The attorney immediately went to the Municipal Courts Building, where Judge Hogan, of the Court of Domestic Relations, heard the testimony in chambers. Newspaper reporters were not permitted to hear the testimony.

At 2:55 p. m., after the plaintiff and others had left, Judge Hogan announced that he had granted the divorce to Mrs. Lambert, and the testimony was made known.

Mrs. Lambert testified only in support of allegations in her petition, one point being that her husband had left her in Paris for 10 days or two weeks at a time, without saying where he was going, and refused to tell her where he had been when he returned.

Mrs. Lambert said she resided at 4331 Pershing avenue and that Lambert made his home at Hotel her testimony that a financial settlement would be effected out of court, which would not be made of record.

Lambert told her he was unwilling to live longer with her, she related, although she had tried for two years to bring about a reconciliation, which he always refused.
His attitude, she said, was one of harshness.

The Lamberts were married here
Jan. 24, 1914, and separated Oct.
1923, the plaintiff stated. She did not ask restoration of her maiden name. She said she was 31 years old and Lambert 35.

There were two character witnesses for Mrs. Lambert, in conformity with the law. They gave their names as Mrs. Hayward of 5637 Pershing avenue and Mrs.
Cushman of 6 Lenox place, but the court stenographer said they spoke in such low tones that he could not hear their given names.

Lambert entered a general denial. He was not present but was represented by counsel.

Mrs. Turner, before her marriage in 1914, was Miss Julia Marion Turner, daughter of Mrs. Wm.
Henry S. Turner. Lambert's father was the founder of a pharmaceutical company in which he made a fortune.

Announcement was made a month ago that Countess Salm had a new home for Lambert, of English style of architecture, on the St. Louis Country Club grounds, was progressing and was expected to be one of the showplaces of St.
Louis Country. It was ready for occupancy in the spring. The Lambert-Turner nuptials, the bride was attended by Lady Wilfrid Peck, formerly Edwina Thornburgh of St. Louis, as matron of honor.

DISTRIBUTES PRINTED CARDS EXPLAINING INJURY TO NOSE

Carl M. Dubinsky, Lawyer, Prepared to Answer Questions as to How It Happened.

Carl M. Dubinsky, a lawyer in the Wainwright Building, appeared at the Municipal Courts Building
this morning with a large plaster of adhesive tape over the bridge of his nose.

Dubinsky, who is well known to court attaches and political workers, was immediately pitted with numerous queries as to "how it happened." Without answering, he immediately began the distribution of neat white cards on which was printed the following:

"I fell on a washstand and broke
it. Doctor says my profile will not be changed. Was sober."

lantic as the ZR-3 would be re-

INJURY SUFFERED SWINGING AT GOLF BALL IS FATAL

Jersey Education Board Head
Succumbs to Complications Caused by Wrenched Back.

By the Associated Press.
JERSEY CITY, N. J., Oct. 16.—
John J. Ferris, 48 years old, president of the Jersey City Board of Education, and a bridge builder, died today from a stroke which,
attending physicians declared, resulted from a twisted vertebrae suffered while playing golf at Deal
last summer.

When Ferris swung at a golf ball on the Deal course he wrenched his back, subsequently being taken to a New York sanitarium for treatment which proved unsuccessful.

Ferris at one time was a member of the New Jersey State Highway Commission. He was a member of the firm of Stillman, Delehanty & Ferris Co., contractors.

DUTCH TO RECLAIM FOREST LAND FLOODED IN 1921

Big Project Added to Task of Draining the Zuyder Zee.

By the Associated Press.
THE HAGUE, Oct. 16.—Besides draining the Zuyder Zee, the Dutch are preparing to undertake another land reclamation project, in the conversion of the Biesbosch district into a valuable land.

The Biesbosch (reed forest) has remained in a semi-flooded condition since the great disaster of 1921, when a tidal wave swept over
it. Thousands of people perished, and villages were destroyed and the city of Dordrecht was torn from the mainland. The district now is a labyrinth of small water courses.

League of Nations Protocol.

By the Associated Press.
WELLINGTON, N. Z., Oct. 16.—
Premier Massey, replying to a question by an opposition member in the Assembly today on the League of Nations or no League of Nations, declared:

"We are not going to arbitrate.
We simply say we cannot come here unless we give permission to the League of Nations or no League of Nations. That is the law of our country and we will stand by it."

COOLIDGE URGES FOREIGN BORN TO PUT U. S. FIRST

Tells Delegation That They Can Best Help Native Lands by Becoming True Americans.

U. S. WISHES TO RID WORLD OF HATRED

President Is Assured of Support by Delegation, Which Is Portion of G. O. P. Advisory Committee.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—America can aid most in settling world troubles and in developing its own standard, President Coolidge told a delegation of foreign-born citizens today, by continuing "as an example and a demonstration that peace, harmony, co-operation and a truly national patriotic sentiment may be established and perpetuated on an American scale."

"Those who cast in their lot with this country can be true to the land of their origin only by first being true to America," he said. "We can be in a position to help only by uniting the American nation, building it up, making it strong, keeping it independent, using its inclination to help and disinclination to injure."

The president said this country welcomes newcomers as it had in the past, but that it had now found necessary by restrictive immigration to protect those already here as well as those who would come. The immigration law, he added, should not be considered a reflection on any race or creed.

First Duty Is to Inhabitants. "As a nation," Mr. Coolidge continued, "our first duty must be to those who already are inhabitants, whether native or immigrant. To them we owe an especial and a weighty obligation. They came to us with stout hearts and high hopes of bettering their estates. They have contributed much to making our country what it is. They have proved their loyalty by contributing their full part when the war made demand for sacrifices by all Americans."

"Let us maintain all the high ideals which have been characteristic of our different races at home," the president continued. "Let us keep our desire to help other lands and, as a great and broad principle, not to help in one place and to harm in another, but to render assistance everywhere. Let us remember also that the best method of promoting this action is giving undivided allegiance to America, maintaining its institutions, supporting its government and, by leaving it internally harmonious, making it externally powerful and promoting a reign of justice and mercy throughout the earth."

Wants to Aid Old Countries. Speaking of the part America is to play in world affairs, Coolidge said it was "our earnest wish" to aid in the regeneration of the countries of the Old World.

"We want to help them," he said, "to rid them of the bad traditions, the ancient animosities, the long established hostility. We want our America to continue an example and a demonstration, that peace, harmony, co-operation and a truly national patriotic sentiment may be established and perpetuated on an American scale. We believe our first great service to the old world will be in providing this. And in providing it we shall be doing the things that will best equip us, spiritually and materially, to give the most effective help for relieving the suffering nations of the Old World."

"You have demonstrated again and again that it is useless to appeal to you on anything but patriotic motives. You are for America. You are for our Constitution; you will not be tempted to take any action that will imperil our society or our Government."

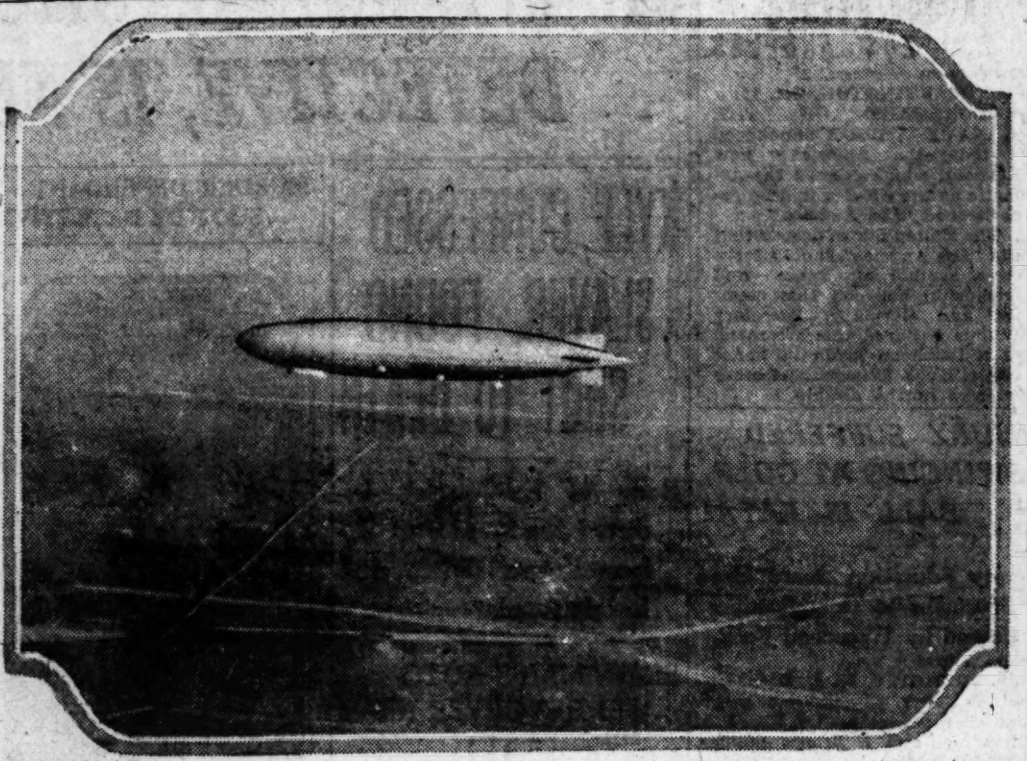

"Became Americans." "It is my own belief that in this land of freedom, new arrivals should especially keep up their devotion to religion. One of the greatest dangers that beset those coming to this country, especially those of the younger generation, is that they will fall away from the religion of their fathers and never become attached to any other faith."

"It is my belief that those who live here and really want to help some other country can best accomplish that result by making themselves truly and wholly American. I mean by that giving their first allegiance to this country and always directing their action in a course which will be first of all for the benefit of this country. They cannot help other nations by bringing Old World race prejudices and race hatreds into action here. In fact, they can best help other countries by scrupulously avoiding any such motive."

The delegation comprised a portion of the Advisory Committee of the Foreign Language Bureau of the Eastern Division of the Republican National Committee. William Augustine Sculley, director of the bureau, presented a testimonial of support on behalf of the delegation, which, he said, represented 12 nationalities.

Log of the ZR-3 as Kept by Captain Steel—Rip Made in Bag When Freeing Gas

ZR-3 Near New York City on Her Flight From Germany

The snapshot was made early Wednesday when the gigantic air cruiser was passing over Mitchell Field, N. Y., on her way to her home port at Lakehurst, N. J.

As Fuel Was Used Up, It Was Necessary to Lessen Lifting Power, and a Valuable Lesson Was Learned.

By the Associated Press. LAKEHURST, N. J., Oct. 16.—While the world marveled at their feat the 21 members of the party that traveled from Germany to America in the ZR-3 today enjoyed their first full day of rest since leaving Friedrichshafen Sunday.

They spent the evening before telling the story of the flight in the phrase that seemed almost commonplace compared to the magnitude of their accomplishment. While they talked they smoked—a pleasure that was forbidden on the ship because of the danger of an explosion. The Germans who composed the crew which guided the giant airship on her epoch-making flight left the huge craft reluctantly. They were fond of her with the fondness of mariners for the vessel that has brought them safely to port.

Dr. Hugo Eckener, Zeppelin Co. president, who commanded the ZR-3 on its transatlantic voyage, was so enthusiastic about the accomplishment of his craft that he expressed the belief that a regular line of airships carrying freight and passengers between Germany and the United States might be established soon.

Could Have Landed in 78 Hours. He said the trip could be made in less than 81 hours and 17 minutes, the time required by the ZR-3 to make the voyage. Dr. Eckener explained that fog and adverse winds had delayed him slightly, and added that the time between shores was really less than the flying time because the ship was at a point over the Massachusetts coast where it could have landed safely, 78 hours after it left Friedrichshafen.

The airship was declared fit for immediate flight today after an inspection which disclosed everything in perfect order.

The task of releasing from the mammoth craft its dangerous hydrogen, representing an expenditure of $11,600, is under way and probably will be completed today. Immediately after the Zeppelin landed, 40 seamen began preparations to deflate the gas bags.

Because of the danger in conserving hydrogen the contents of the 13 cells will be allowed to escape into the air instead of into tanks. When the craft is reinflated, helium will be used.

Approximately 20 per cent of the hydrogen in the bags was valued out to reduce the buoyancy of the Zeppelin in landing yesterday.

In return for its expenditures in connection with the ZR-3, the Government collected less than $50 in duties when the craft landed. Classed as a German merchantman, the Zeppelin was boarded and inspected by custom, health and immigration authorities as though it were an ocean liner.

The manifest prepared by the command of the ZR-3 described the Zeppelin as "in ballast," carrying eight sacks of mail.

Log Kept by Capt. Steel. Each of the 33 passengers on the ZR-3 had his story to tell when he disembarked, but the most complete was the story told by the diary of Capt. George W. Steele, prospective commander of the dirigible.

He related how on Oct. 10, the day set for the flight, such crowds surged at the gates of the Friedrichshafen airfield that he was lost in the crush; how the big ballast to rise because of atmospheric conditions; how the take-off was postponed for two days.

PERTINENT FACTS IN ZR-3'S FLIGHT OVER ATLANTIC OCEAN

MASHED ALL FLIGHT endurance and long distance, non-stop records.

Flew from Friedrichshafen, Germany, to Lakehurst, N. J., in 81 hours 17 minutes. Total over land and sea distance covered about 5666 miles. Crossed the Atlantic at twice the speed of the fastest ocean liner.

At 2:30 we passed over the mouth of the Gironde River to the Bay of Biscay. It had taken us only nine hours to reach the Atlantic, averaging over 60 miles an hour. The ship felt the effect of the complication of currents in the air. In addition, we were near the movement of air across the hills caused additional eddies. The result was a gentle roll and pitch, but not uncomfortable. When we reached the sea the bumpy motion ceased.

Checking Course and Speed. "At 4 o'clock, when the watch was relieved, the men stretched out comfortably and began to bunk up. Some of the more energetic ones played a tune on the phonograph, but this met with disapproval. Evening fell over a calm sea, with a clear sky, with just enough red in the west to be a 'tailor's delight.' The course was laid for Cape Finisterre, but darkness fell as we sighted the Spanish coast. While Dr. Eckener and I were in the dining room, about 7 o'clock, the ship began to jump about. We looked out of the window and there, under a full moon, lay the precipitous coast of Spain. At 7:40 we had Le Estaca de Biscaya ahead and the course was laid for the Azores. During the night the course and speed were checked occasionally by sighting on torch beams dropped from the ship.

"When the end of our watch periods came we found the berth very comfortable and enjoyed undisturbed sleep. I had bought a large wooden cot and a blanket in Friedrichshafen to take on this voyage. The ship is not equipped by the builders with bunks, and those supplied for the crew were made of canvas. I heated to bring my cot, but I am glad I did. With its protection I was able to sleep in nothing heavier than palamas.

"In the morning of the thirteenth we passed directly above the British steamer headed for the opposite direction. By radio the ZR-3 inquired the steamer's position and reply was received indicating that the ship ran close to the surface of the sea, the better to judge the direction and force of the wind by observing the waves. Then she climbed above the fog, which ran only 500 feet high, and ran thus until darkness fell and the surroundings. We felt a sympathy leaving Terceira, the ship was driven to a height of about 5000 feet, in order to lift the safety valves and lose lifting gas to compensate for the loss of weight of gasoline used.

Rip Found and Repaired. "During this maneuver today, something happened which must be carefully watched during all such maneuvers. Upon returning to flying height, which was at this time about 1000 feet, a rip about two feet long was discovered in the lower part of one of the gas cells. This was immediately repaired and the result was nothing worse than a small amount of air finding its way into the cell to mix with the hydrogen and reduce its purity. If, however, the hole had been larger, or had not been so soon discovered, enough air might have found its way into the cell to form a dangerous mixture of gas and also to reduce the lifting power of the cell. It is therefore standard practice to have men carefully inspect the bottoms of the gas cells, the only part they can see—during each considerable gain or loss of altitude by the airship.

"At a height of 5000 feet, down to 2000 feet, we were approaching Picou Island, and all we could see of the island was its peak, triangular in outline, projecting above the clouds. From 3:20 we were passing through and over the islands of the Azores.

"Calamity overtook us earlier in the day. The wash water gave out. We have joined the ranks of the unwashed and unwashed. The commissary promises to ration sufficient water for a shave just before landing—if we land soon enough. He is, meanwhile, furnishing good, hot meals and we are at least well fed. We are well housed, too; and anyone who will make a couple of trips a day, have held it and down from the tip of the nose, and down to the depths of the lower fin, need not complain of lack of exercise.

Shifting the Course. "The night of the thirteenth was marked by adverse wind, of considerable strength. As soon as weather reports came in, next morning, it was decided to head up to the northwest. In the meanwhile a steamer seen on the horizon was asked for her position, and the ZR-3, found herself, according to the steamer, about 120 miles to the northward of her assumed position. Communication was also established with the cruiser Detroit and with all the available data as a guide the course was laid northwest.

"At about half past nine we passed directly above the steamer Robert Dollar, have hoisted a number in flags and ran up the British ensign. The ZR-3 then began to climb and rose to a height of about 8000 feet. This was to lift the safety valves again. The result was about five per cent loss of hydrogen from the gas cells, leaving them 80 per cent full. About half of the fuel supply still remained, enough for 66 hours running with four of the five engines at 1250 r. p. m. which gives about 57 knots.

"The trip above the clouds gave temporary relief from the summer heat. The temperature was 75 degrees in the cabin last night and continued warm today. Early in the afternoon fog was encountered and for several hours the ship ran close to the surface of the sea, the better to judge the direction and force of the wind by observing the waves. Then she climbed above the fog, which ran only 500 feet high, and ran thus until darkness fell and the surroundings. We felt a sympathy

KILLS SICK WIFE, SHOOTS DAUGHTER, ENDS OWN LIFE

Switchman in Drunken Frenzy Tries to Carry Out Threat to Wipe Out Family in Home.

WAS BROODING OVER WIFE'S LONG ILLNESS

Man Fires at Bed-Ridden Woman Who Died From Wound—Girl Seriously Wounded.

In a drunken frenzy, caused by imagined wrongs and despondency over his wife's long illness, Ford W. Price, 40 years old, a railroad switchman, tried last night to carry out an often-repeated threat to wipe out his family of three. Firing five shots with a revolver, he shot and fatally wounded his bedridden wife, Emma, 33; wounded his 13-year-old daughter, Elsie, and killed himself in their flat at 1306 Dillon street.

Mrs. Price died shortly before noon at city hospital. When police arrived he was dead with a bullet wound in the head. Mrs. Price was unconscious with a wound in the abdomen and the daughter was suffering with a wound below the knee.

Woman Ill 30 Years. Miss Price said her mother had been ill for about 30 years, and her father brooded over it and drank heavily. He frequently accused his daughter of disobedience and often when under the influence of liquor threatened to kill her. Last night I went to a church mission at 1233 Hickory street, and he came after me accusing me of going there to meet a man he didn't like," the daughter said.

Price was drunk and on the way home he abused me constantly for neglecting my mother and disobeying him. "I was in the kitchen curling my hair when I heard a shot and saw him in the bedroom shooting at me. I was trying to unlock the back door to get out when he ran into the kitchen and fired at me. I was hurt but managed to get to the door and locked it. Just as he put the revolver against his head and shot himself."

Find Daughter Unconscious. Neighbors attracted by the shots found Miss Price unconscious in the doorway. At city hospital her wound was diagnosed as serious, but physicians said she would recover.

The daughter is employed as a stenographer by a downtown real estate firm and has been studying law at night. Price was employed by the Terminal Railroad Association.

for the vessels in the fog; we have been there, in surface ships, ourselves, and this fog extended over 40 miles.

"When I came on watch, last midnight, the ZR-3 was skirting the southeast coast of Nova Scotia. It was a cold, bright night, a decided change from the night before. At 1:10 a. m. Seal Island was passed and the ship headed across the Gulf of Maine toward Boston. The position was occasionally checked by bearings from radio compass stations along the shore.

"Cape Cod Light was passed ahead at 2:15 a. m. Eastern standard time, and soon afterwards the ship was sailing over Boston. It was a sight to swell the heart of a returning American, and one never to be forgotten. Millions of lights. If one looked closely downwards one could see the buildings, but looking straight ahead nothing but lights."

Dr. Eckener and Crew Entertained in Washington. By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Dr. Hugo Eckener and other ranking members of the German crew which brought the Zeppelin ZR-3 from Friedrichshafen to Lakehurst, came to Washington today to tell the Navy Department directly of their exploit and to be received at the White House by President Coolidge.

Upon their arrival they went to the Navy building and then Secretary Wilbur joined them and accompanied them to the White House. Later the Secretary was host at a formal luncheon. Eighteen guests attended, including Dr. Eckener, Dr. Baer, Secretary of the German Embassy, Admiral Elberich, chief of naval operations; Maj. Gen. Lejeune, commandant of the Marine Corps; Ernest Lehmann, constructive officer of the ZR-3; Hans Flemming, chief pilot; Admiral Hilary Jones, president of the Naval General Board; Capt. Henry Hough, director of naval intelligence; Capt. W. Johnson, acting director of naval aeronautics; Capt. George W. Steele, future commander of the ZR-3; Capt. Walter Gherard, aide to Secretary Wilbur; Hans Von Schiller, assistant quartermaster of the ZR-3; Lieut. Commanders Norfleet and Kraus and Dr. William F. Durand, representing the naval advisory board for aeronautics.

$1,714,000 Given to Republican Campaign Fund

Wrigley was identified at the request of Senator Borah as a chewing gum manufacturer and a "public-spirited citizen of Chicago, well known in this city."

Hodges said there was a contribution of $50,000 paid to the National Committee on Aug. 18, last, by Joseph R. Grundy, of Bristol, Pa.

$50,000 Refunded to Grundy. "This was paid with the understanding that it was to be refunded," Hodges said. "It has been refunded. Mr. Grundy had been unable to solicit funds at the time," the witness added.

Replying to Senator Caraway, Grundy said he was to have raised $100,000 in Pennsylvania.

"What part of Pennsylvania?" asked Caraway. "I don't know exactly," was the reply. "Mr. Grundy is in Eastern Pennsylvania."

"What was the total to be raised in Pennsylvania?" pursued Caraway. "Six hundred thousand dollars," Hodges replied.

How much was Illinois to raise? "Four hundred thousand dollars," Hodges replied.

"Was there an agreement with the Pennsylvania organization that in return for raising $800,000, it was to control all expenditures in that State?"

$3,000,000 G. O. P. Budget. "I have no knowledge of any such agreement."

"Was there an implied agreement to that effect?" "Not that I know of."

"What was the entire national budget that was to be raised?" "From the beginning we estimated that it would require approximately $3,000,000 to finance the Republican National Committee and the congressional and senatorial campaigns."

Subsequently, Hodges received from his office and read to the committee, this list of Eastern contributors:

Ten thousand or more: Payne Whitney, Manhattan, N. Y., $15,000; Aldrich A. Johnson, Camden, N. J., $15,000; J. B. Duke, Somerset, N. J., $12,500; Owen F. Roberts, Avon, Conn., $12,500; Mrs. Owen F. Roberts, $12,500; Arthur Curtis James, New York City, $15,000; Julius F. Crechman, New York City, $10,000; Charles Hangle, New York City, $10,000; J. Horace Harding, Brunswick, N. J., $10,000; J. B. Armitage, New York City, $10,000; and Mortimer L. Schiff, New York City, $10,000.

La Follette Disbursements. The receipts of the La Follette headquarters fund were listed as follows: Washington contributions, $12,990; Chicago contributions, $104,744; payment by press representatives on Wheeler car, $2800; total receipts, Chicago, $107,544; total receipts all sources, $120,535.

Disbursements were given as follows: Washington headquarters, $7,095; less transfer of funds, $11,500; $58,595. Chicago headquarters, $95,465. Net disbursements all sources, $155,062.

Cash on hand and in bank, Washington headquarters, $11,893; Chicago headquarters, $23,575. Total, $35,472.

In a prepared statement read to the committee, Nelson said the contributions had been received from approximately 75,000 contributors. Aside from the advances or contributions made by National Treasurer W. T. Raleigh, Nelson said, "There has been received one contribution of $5000 and the contributions of $1000 each and the remaining contributions are in smaller amounts, mostly in sums of $1."

WALES' HORSE FALLS HE TAKES A HEADER

Prince Remounts, Flies Chase, and Spends Evening Dancing.

By the Associated Press. TORONTO, Oct. 16.—For racing and fox trotting occupied most of the attention of the Prince of Wales yesterday. He arrived in the morning and departed for Ottumwa today.

Although he was one of several riders who fell from their mounts in a fox hunt, the Prince remounted and finished the chase. As the Prince rode to the King Edward Hotel and entered the lobby, he was greeted by a large number of admirers.

The Prince returned to his quarters at the King Edward Hotel this morning at 6 o'clock. After the York Club ball last night he attended an informal dance at the residence of Mr. B. Robbins.

The Prince's tumble occurred shortly after the first fall when the party made a quick burst after a fast traveling fox. Well up in the air, the Prince, who was wearing a five-foot top, fell from his horse, landed rather heavily and his rider went over the horse's shoulder.

Kildare continued to run, while the Prince scrambled to his feet and started after the horse, finally catching him at the corner of the field. Other hunters were forced to stop, but the Prince was determined to capture the animal.

The Earl of Dunmore had a spill at a stone fence, straining his left leg, necessitating the return of the hunt.

The Prince was well in front for the kill and obtained the brush.

"MOVIE" AVIATOR KILLED. By the Associated Press. LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16.—Dick Kerwood, "movie" stunt aviator, was killed yesterday in the mountains near Newhall, northwest of here, when he fell about 400 feet from a ladder dangling from an airplane. He was not missed by the pilot until the plane was ready to fly before the camera.

ports submitted in response to our requests, but if these reports suggest further inquiry of any line we may request the accounts of the books of the campaign headquarters."

Gave Away Security. The syndicate, as managed by these three men, gave away security for the stock, which was loaned to them for five or six weeks and then returned to the syndicate. Asked why the loan had been made, when no profit to the investment company resulted, Niedringhaus said the purpose of the loan was to draw interest on the Niedringhaus family.

"These three gentlemen were buying and selling National Enameling and Stamping Co. stock," Niedringhaus testified he subsequently put 4000 shares of National Enameling and Stamping Co. stock in the hands of the syndicate, which was managed by Joseph Moran, the former head of the word "Naroma" being formed by adding "A" to the letters of "Moran," spelled backward. Members of the syndicate were: Niedringhaus, Moran, Dockery, McGuire, George W. Niedringhaus, and W. Hanson. Harry Summers and a Mr. Richardson.

"Object Was Voting Control." "That was the purpose in obtaining this security," Niedringhaus testified. Niedringhaus, who is president of the National Enameling and Stamping Co., replied: "The Niedringhaus family was interested in the National Enameling and Stamping Co. and we were made to get rid of some of the Niedringhaus members. The object of the syndicate was to secure voting control."

"To buy and sell a profit." The shares loaned have since been returned to the investment company, the witness continued. He was questioned about a letter in his personal shares to the syndicate manager, and whether he had made any profit through the syndicate. "No so far," he replied. He stated full authority for participation in the syndicate was granted by the directors of the investment company.

Questioned About Notes. Questioned about two notes for $100,000 in favor of H. E. Hayward, which were allowed against the estate in 1919, and for which Niedringhaus and subsequent Niedringhaus testified the notes had been given to St. Louis banks to obtain funds necessary to pay off debts incurred by William B. Niedringhaus, and subsequently had been bought from the banks and assigned to Hayward, who proved them against the estate.

In George W. Niedringhaus' statement as executor of his father's estate, these notes were described as "loans" made on the part of Niedringhaus to admit him to the syndicate. Niedringhaus denied this and said he was willing to stand by his statement. Niedringhaus' questioning of the notes was a "plain" statement, legal in all respects.

WALL ST. VENTURE OF NIEDRINGHAUS FAMILY DISCLOSED

George W. Niedringhaus Makes Deposition in Answer to Sister-in-Law Suit for Accounting

Shares of Stamping Company Loaned to Syndicate for Formation of Syndicate to Obtain Voting Control of National Enameling Co.

Business affairs of the Niedringhaus family, including a venture into Wall street, were disclosed in a deposition yesterday by George W. Niedringhaus, president of the William B. Niedringhaus Investment Co., a corporation formed in 1911 to conduct the $4,000,000 estate of his father, who died in 1908.

The deposition was in the suit of Mrs. Oliver B. Niedringhaus, 4666 Lindell boulevard for an accounting, appointment of a receiver and removal of George W. Niedringhaus, her brother-in-law, president of the corporation, and the ground that corporation assets have been "wasted, converted and misappropriated."

Niedringhaus Examined. Niedringhaus was examined at cross-examination for three hours by the plaintiff's attorney, who was plaintiff questioned. His testimony will be continued Monday, before Special Commissioner Harry A. Frank. He declared all his actions as president and director of the corporation were "properly conducted" and denied that either he or other directors had profited individually.

Preliminary to entering Wall street, resolution was adopted at the meeting of the directors of the William B. Niedringhaus Investment Co., on March 15, 1922, to lend 5000 shares, par value $100 each, of the National Enameling and Stamping Co., to "certain parties." Niedringhaus testified, adding the "certain parties" were W. McGuire of Chicago and P. Langdon and John Dockery of New York.

Gave Away Security. The syndicate, as managed by these three men, gave away security for the stock, which was loaned to them for five or six weeks and then returned to the syndicate. Asked why the loan had been made, when no profit to the investment company resulted, Niedringhaus said the purpose of the loan was to draw interest on the Niedringhaus family.

"These three gentlemen were buying and selling National Enameling and Stamping Co. stock," Niedringhaus testified he subsequently put 4000 shares of National Enameling and Stamping Co. stock in the hands of the syndicate, which was managed by Joseph Moran, the former head of the word "Naroma" being formed by adding "A" to the letters of "Moran," spelled backward. Members of the syndicate were: Niedringhaus, Moran, Dockery, McGuire, George W. Niedringhaus, and W. Hanson. Harry Summers and a Mr. Richardson.

"Object Was Voting Control." "That was the purpose in obtaining this security," Niedringhaus testified. Niedringhaus, who is president of the National Enameling and Stamping Co., replied: "The Niedringhaus family was interested in the National Enameling and Stamping Co. and we were made to get rid of some of the Niedringhaus members. The object of the syndicate was to secure voting control."

"To buy and sell a profit." The shares loaned have since been returned to the investment company, the witness continued. He was questioned about a letter in his personal shares to the syndicate manager, and whether he had made any profit through the syndicate. "No so far," he replied. He stated full authority for participation in the syndicate was granted by the directors of the investment company.

Questioned About Notes. Questioned about two notes for $100,000 in favor of H. E. Hayward, which were allowed against the estate in 1919, and for which Niedringhaus and subsequent Niedringhaus testified the notes had been given to St. Louis banks to obtain funds necessary to pay off debts incurred by William B. Niedringhaus, and subsequently had been bought from the banks and assigned to Hayward, who proved them against the estate.

In George W. Niedringhaus' statement as executor of his father's estate, these notes were described as "loans" made on the part of Niedringhaus to admit him to the syndicate. Niedringhaus denied this and said he was willing to stand by his statement. Niedringhaus' questioning of the notes was a "plain" statement, legal in all respects.

WALL ST. VENTURE OF NIEDRINGHAUS FAMILY DISCLOSED

George W. Niedringhaus Makes Deposition in Answer to Sister-in-Law's Suit for Accounting.

SHARES OF STAMPING COMPANY LOANED

Tells of Formation of Syndicate to Obtain Voting Control of National Enameling Co.

Business affairs of the Niedringhaus family, including a venture into Wall street, were disclosed in a deposition yesterday by George W. Niedringhaus, president of the William F. Niedringhaus Investment Co., to conduct the $4,000,000 estate of his father, who died in 1908.

The deposition was in the suit of Mrs. Oliver B. Niedringhaus of 450 Lindell boulevard for an accounting, appointment of a receiver and removal of George W. Niedringhaus, her brother-in-law, as president of the corporation, on the ground that corporation assets have been "wasted, converted and conveyed."

Niedringhaus examined and cross-examined for three hours about 13 transactions which the plaintiff questioned. His testimony will be continued Monday, before Special Commissioner Harry A. Frank. He declared all his actions as president and director of the corporation were to protect his interests and denied that either he or other directors had profited individually.

Preliminary to entering Wall street, a resolution adopted at a meeting of the directors of the William F. Niedringhaus Investment Co., on March 15, 1922, to lend $500 shares, par value $100 each, of the National Enameling and Stamping Co., to "certain parties." Niedringhaus testified, adding the "certain parties" were W. G. McGuire of Chicago and P. D. Landson and John Dockery of New York.

Game Ample Security. The syndicate, as managed by these three men, gave ample security for the stock, which was loaned to them for five or six weeks and then returned, Niedringhaus said. Asked why the loan had been made, when no profit to the investment company resulted, Niedringhaus said the purpose of the loan was to "further the interests of the Niedringhaus family."

"These three gentlemen were buying and selling National Enameling and Stamping Co. stock and wanted a supply on hand for that purpose," asked Douglas W. Robert, attorney for Mrs. Oliver B. Niedringhaus.

"That is correct," replied Niedringhaus. Niedringhaus testified he subsequently put 4000 shares of National Enameling into a pool known as the National Enameling Syndicate, of which Joseph Moran was manager, the word "Naroma" being formed by adding "A" to the letters of "Moran" spelled backward. Members of the syndicate were said to be Moran, Dockery, McGuire, George W. Niedringhaus, W. T. Hanson, Harry Summers and a Mr. Richardson.

"Object Was Voting Control." That was the purpose in organizing this syndicate," Attorney Robert asked. Niedringhaus, who is president of the National Enameling and Stamping Co., replied: "The Niedringhaus family was greatly interested in National Enameling and efforts were being made to get rid of some of the Niedringhaus members. The object of the syndicate was to secure voting control."

"And also to speculate?" "To buy and sell at profit." The shares loaned have since been returned to the investment company, the witness continued. He was questioned about a loan of 1000 shares of the syndicate to Moran, Dockery, McGuire, George W. Niedringhaus, W. T. Hanson, Harry Summers and a Mr. Richardson.

JUDGE WURDEMAN HAS RADIO IN CHAMBERS FOR BROTHER

Set Is Installed to Cheer Up Man Who Is Confined With Paralysis.

The color of life and the noise of what's going on in the world are brought into Circuit Judge Wurde-man's book-lined chambers in the Clayton courthouse by a radio set installed yesterday for the judge's brother, Herman Wurde-man, 68, who has been confined to the chambers by paralysis for three years.

Wurde-man was lamed in 1886 by a horse's kick and later came from his Western ranch to reside with his brother. Three years ago he fell, suffering a fractured hip, and thereafter was unable to leave the rooms where he keeps books for the County Assessor.

One other contact with outside life has reached his cramped quarters—letters from Italy and Spain and "far-off islands," written by the daughter of an old friend, the young woman's mother, whom he knew in his home town in Pennsylvania, was killed in a train wreck.

HERRIOT AGREES TO SALARY DEMANDS OF STATE EMPLOYEES

French Premier Favors Scale Ranging From $318 to $2000 a Year, With Allowances.

PARIS, Oct. 16.—Premier Herriot has found a way of satisfying the demands of the State functionaries for a minimum salary of 6000 francs ($215). The result was attained after a conference attended by Finance Minister Clementel, the president of the Finance Committee of the Chamber of Deputies, the president of the Senate and Chamber budget committees and other interested parties, lasting most of yesterday afternoon and last evening.

After studying the question from every angle, it was found possible to adopt a scale of salaries rising from 6000 ($215) to 40,000 francs ($2000) without exceeding the limits of the appropriation for that purpose in the budget. Under the plan, provisional allowances for the high cost of living would be included in the salaries, functionaries who are lodged free would have a proportionate reduction made in their salaries and 20,000 places would be abolished.

The Premier today is to receive representatives of the civil servants and explain the reform to them in detail.

STRENUOUS DAY PREPARED HERE FOR JOHN W. DAVIS

Democratic Presidential Nominee Will Speak at East St. Louis, at Coliseum and at Hotel Dinner

John W. Davis, Democratic presidential nominee, has a strenuous day prepared for him when he arrives here Saturday morning. He will deliver three addresses. The principal one at the Coliseum at 8 p. m. This will be preceded by two others, one in East St. Louis at 2 p. m. and the other at a dinner at the Jefferson Hotel at 6 p. m.

Aside from these engagements, Davis will dictate his own program. He has requested particularly that he not be disturbed in the morning and proposes to devote that time to the outline of his evening address. Davis for the most part, speaks extemporaneously, with the assistance of notes previously prepared.

He will find that the traditional torchlight parade has been invoked to arouse enthusiasm for the Coliseum meeting. The Democratic City Central Committee has assembled the ward organizations and it is expected that several thousand persons, all bearing torches, will file past the Davis reviewing stand at Channing avenue and Olive street at 7:30 p. m. on the way to the Coliseum.

Formation of Parade. One section of the parade, comprising the First to Twelfth wards, inclusive, will form between the Fourteenth and Nineteenth wards, will form between Fourteenth and Seventeenth streets on Chestnut street and march west in Chestnut street and Channing avenue to the Davis stand.

The second division of the parade, consisting of the Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth and Twentieth to Twenty-eighth wards, inclusive, will form between Grand boulevard and Vandeventer avenue, on Lindell boulevard. This division will fall in behind the eastern division at the Lindell end, where the reviewing stand is to be, and the parade will march to Channing avenue and east on Washington boulevard.

Davis and his party will arrive from Chicago at 12 a. m. and will be met by a reception committee, or which former Gov. Frederick D. Gardner is chairman. The Davis party occupies three cars of a special train. The traveling party will include Senator Key Pittman, Cordell Hull and Homer Cummings, both former chairmen of the Democratic National Committee.

No Plans for Luncheon. No arrangements for luncheon have been made, and it is not known whether Davis will have it in St. Louis or in East St. Louis. He will speak at Almad Temple, East St. Louis, at 2 p. m., and will return to Hotel Jefferson immediately following his address.

A limited number of tickets, 500 in number, will be sold for the Davis dinner at 6 p. m. Members of the Democratic Club Association will be guests. Tickets may be obtained at Democratic State headquarters at Hotel Jefferson.

Joshua W. Barbee, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, will preside at the dinner. Davis and Dr. Arthur W. Nelson, Democratic nominee for Governor, will be the principal speakers.

Members of the Davis party will then go direct to the reviewing stand at Channing avenue and Olive street, unless it rains. The parade will be held regardless of weather conditions. The Coliseum doors will be open to the public at 7 p. m., and the meeting will open at 8 o'clock. There will be only a few reserved seats and no seats will be for sale.

George H. Moore, defeated in the race for the Democratic nomination for Governor, will preside. Former Federal Judge Henry S. Priest, who was also defeated for the gubernatorial nomination, will introduce Davis.

Immediately after the meeting Davis will depart for Nashville, Tenn., where he will spend Sunday.

"JIMMY" MILES, BEATEN TO DRAW AND SHOT BY DETECTIVE, NEAR DEATH

wall." The straps were removed after Constable Byrne, friend of Miles' late father, had arranged a $1000 bond for Miles on the concealed weapons charge, thus making him no longer a prisoner.

Chances of Recovery Slight. Dr. Scharff, superintendent of the hospital, said that, while the chances were strongly against Miles' recovery, he might live for a day or more. He said Miles seemed to be recovering from the shock of the operation and that the chief immediate danger was of an internal hemorrhage.

This afternoon, Miles was weak, and further blood transfusion was decided upon. Mrs. Miles and two sisters, Miss May Miles and Mrs. Alice Gento, were ready to furnish the money for the operation. The shooting of Miles occurred just one month after his return to the city to answer the murder charge, Constable Byrne having arrested three white women, three negro women and one negro man. In the man's pockets was found a clipping telling of Purnell's practices.

Purnell is wanted by the State of Michigan for alleged immoral relations with girl members of the House of David colony at Benton Harbor and on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. The man told the police that his real soul self was "at least 1000 years old," but guessed that his "material" age was about 50 or 55. Purnell is about 60 years old. The man denied he was Benjamin Purnell.

In a Business Suit. J. B. Walston, chief of detectives, said he would telegraph to Grand Rapids, Mich., for a complete description of Purnell. The man held here is six feet tall, has grayish brown hair, cut short, and wears a neat gray business suit. The negro man and all but one of the women arrested with their leader in the basement of a bungalow told the police they had no earthly names. The leader was booked at police headquarters as "Jesus Christ revealed," and gave his home as "Heaven."

When the police went to the bungalow early today, all the members of the colony were asleep on mats in the basement. The basement was cluttered with shiny new wardrobe trunks. Handbags were piled on the trunks and boxes. Tables between the cots held many vanity cases and women's clothing. At the foot of the stairway was a cot occupied by the leader. Curtains from the ceiling gave privacy to the cots.

Kansas City Police Arrest "Jesus Christ Revealed" on Chance He May Be Missing Purnell.

By the Associated Press.

Victims of lipstick attacks always maintain that their illness has been caused by food or drink and are not inclined to change their habits unless they suffer three or four severe seizures after dining in restaurants or cafes with an unusual amount of red on their lips.

Mrs. Frankie Schneider Found Unconscious by Daughter. When Cecilia Schneider, 11 years old, returned to her home, 6510 Virginia avenue, from school at noon today she found her mother, Mrs. Frankie Schneider, unconscious on the bathroom floor with a tube attached to an open gas jet held in her mouth.

Mrs. Schneider is in a serious condition at her home. Her husband, Frederick, an employee of the Health Department, could give no reason for his wife's ailment.

Flour Goes Up 25 Cents. MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 16.—With an advance today of 25 cents a barrel on family patents by one of the large milling companies here, flour prices ascended to the highest levels in several years. On the heels of yesterday's increased cash wheat quotations, millers increased the range of flour prices for the best grade of flour to $3.25 and $3.45 a barrel when sold in carlots.

He launched into a sermon and quoted Scripture until the police interrupted. He insisted that he was divine and that God had sent him to earth to spread love and joy. He told the police he didn't know he ever had earthly parents, that he came from San Francisco about five months ago, but that he had been "almost everywhere."

"Who is that man, the leader?" one of the negro women was asked. "He is who he says he is, I assure him," she replied. "I speak only for myself."

BARLESS DENS AT ZOO ARE PLANNED

Officials Return From East, Where Proposed Changes Were Discussed.

With the return this week of Park Commissioner Pape, Superintendent Vierheller of the St. Louis Zoo and Frank Schwarz, the zoo's consulting director, from Washington, D. C., where they attended sessions of the American Institute of Park Executives and the American Park Society, announcement was made that the local zoo is to undergo a transformation, having to do with the housing arrangements of the inmates.

Excepting the monkeys, all ruminants and carnivorous animals are to be exhibited in barless dens, as the bears are exhibited at present. As fast as they can be constructed, barless dens are to be constructed for the mountain sheep, mountain goat, acoudad, tahr and other animals of the same class.

Plans Are Outlined.
"The St. Louis Program for a Barless Zoo" was the subject of a paper, read before the zoological division of the American Park Society, by Schwarz, who was one of the founders of the St. Louis zoo, in which he described the local bear dens and cited reasons for the proposed changes.

One reason, he enumerated was a growing resentment of the general public and particularly the Humane Society, to the caging of animals. Practical reasons he advanced were that caged bars are an obstruction to the view and a frequent source of injury to the animal.

In the construction of the new dens, attention will be directed toward simulating the native habitat of the animal, consistent with the safety and view of the spectator. In the case of the ruminants, a rough, stony surface will be provided, as in the natural state, in order to keep their rapidly growing hoofs ground down, making trimming unnecessary.

Concrete Containers.
In the new dens all wooden houses, troughs, food storage bins and the like will be replaced by concrete containers. Schwarz contends that the proposed changes, while expensive in initial cost, will be balanced by their low maintenance.

"The initial expense, when bars and fences are used," he said, "is by no means the last, because these must be continually kept in paint and in repair and after a certain period they must be replaced by new ones. In addition, there is the loss of animals due to breaking of legs, when jumping against the fences while excited, as well as through death from insanitary conditions, which cannot be eliminated from the barred and fence type. It will be found in the end, that the barless and fenceless quarters are the least expensive, the most comfortable for the animals and the most satisfactory to the spectators."

WIFE SHOT TO DEATH, HUSBAND KILLS SELF

Mount Vernon (Mo.) Authorities Say Woman Was Killed by Man Who Later Drank Poison.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
MT. VERNON, Mo., Oct. 14.—Within three minutes after his wife died in a hospital here as a result of a bullet wound, William P. Tarter of Miller drank carbolic acid and died in a short time. Tarter and his wife were brought here early today when they were found in an automobile on the Miller-Springfield road.

Mrs. Tarter was driving the machine and was in the left front seat. The bullet entered her right side. Both she and her husband at first said the shot was fired by someone in a passing car. Later, they disagreed. Authorities here say Tarter shot his wife. No reason for the act, however, has been found.

ADVERTISING NO MORE CASTOR OIL FOR THE CHILDREN

Give Them Haley's
Magnesia-Oil

Mothers, there's an easy way now to correct that sour stomach, and to relieve the effect of something that has "disagreed" with the youngster. Simply give them a teaspoonful or more of Haley's Magnesia-Oil.

It has no oily taste—can be mixed with milk and given children without their knowledge—and it's harmless. A big dose for emergencies is perfectly safe and promptly effective. There is no griping or other unpleasant effect. Haley's Magnesia-Oil is simply milk of magnesia and mineral oil combined.

The oil carries the magnesia straight to the lower bowel, where most "stomach troubles" originate. The milk of magnesia neutralizes the acids and the mineral oil lubricates and aids nature quickly to remove the cause of the trouble. Both work together.

If your druggist can't supply Haley's Magnesia-Oil we will mail a bottle postpaid on receipt of 25c. Trial size. Send family size, 50c. The Haley M-O Company, Indianapolis, Ind.

MAN AND WIFE HELD FOR KILLING AUTOMOBILIST IN UTAH

Tourists Charged With Murdering Man and Beating Girl Companion.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Oct. 15.—Complaints charging murder in the first degree were issued here yesterday against Mr. and Mrs. Mark Collins, automobilists from Chico, Cal., in connection with the killing of C. H. McQuown of Buhl, Idaho, by a robber last Saturday night.

The slaying of McQuown occurred on a lonely road in the suburbs soon after dark on Saturday. He was riding in his automobile in company with Miss Rhonda Tanner, when approached by a robber. McQuown and Miss Tanner were ordered from the machine. The robber killed McQuown and beat Miss Tanner into insensibility. Collins denies any connection with the slaying of McQuown. He maintains that he had just returned after an unsuccessful search for work when arrested.

DOUBLE-FACED Number	List Price
Berceuse (Lullaby) (Gardel) Fanny Brice Berceuse (Lullaby) (Gardel) Fanny Brice	1035 $1.50
Two delicately beautiful cradle songs, rich in both contrasts and similarities, sung by Mme. Hansen's violin with a subdued accompaniment on the piano.
La Chasse (The Hunt) (Scarlatti) Wanda Landowska Bourrée d'Auvergne (Country Dance) Wanda Landowska	1038 1.50
One of these numbers is a dance in old style by the artist herself. The curious whispering aftertone of the harpsichord, whose strings are plucked with quills, not struck with hammers, like the piano, is beautifully in evidence.
Gioconda—Voce di donna (Puccini) In Italian Margaret Matzenauer Huguenots—Nobil signori, salute! Margaret Matzenauer	6471 2.00
The first number, the tender thanks of the blind woman rescued from the charges of witchcraft, is a beautiful example of legato singing; the second, the florid contralto song of the worldly page-boy.

Melodious Instrumental

A Suite of Serenades—Part 1 Paul Whiteman and His Concert Orchestra A Suite of Serenades—Part 2	55226 1.50
Four serenades by the late Victor Herbert, especially composed for this enlarged organization, in Spanish, Chinese, Cuban and Oriental styles.

Light Vocal Selections

Of the Stilly Night Male Quartet Shannon Quartet All Through the Night Male Quartet Shannon Quartet	19413 .75
Beautiful old favorites—one of Moore's loveliest lyrics, and a lovely old Welsh song. The solo parts are accompanied by orchestra, with interludes of uncommon beauty.
Go 'long, Mule Vernon Dalhart Way Out West in Kansas Billy Murray—Ed Smalley	19442 .75
Two comedy songs that come up to the name; even the instruments of the orchestra laugh and chuckle. Incidentally, these are two very snappy dance tunes.
When I Was the Dandy and You Were the Belle Aileen Stanley—Billy Murray Put Away a Little Ray of Golden Sunshine Aileen Stanley	19443 .75
These distinguished comedy singers have two fine sentimental numbers, the first introducing some old-time tunes.
A Voice With a Smile Henry Burr Smile Again, Kathleen Mavourneen Sterling Trio	19444 .75
Emotional numbers in the popular manner. The first number is simple and obvious in melodic style; the other walks-like in structure, introducing the harmony of men's voices.

Dance Records

Hard Hearted Hannah—Fox Trot Paul Whiteman and His Orchestra Bagdad—Fox Trot	19447 .75
The Savannah lady of the adamant heart now appears on a fox-trot record, paired with an "Oriental" companion. Good records for the Collegiate, and also for the standard or two-step fox-trot.
That's Georgia—Fox Trot The Benson Orchestra of Chicago Morning—Fox Trot	19445 .75
Fox trots of the melodious kind. "Georgia" has an odd beginning, smoothly launched without obvious rhythm. "Morning" has short phrases and a strong rhythm.

The $5 Hat Shop

by Shirley Deane

I CAN never make a tour of the $5 Hat Shop without being reminded of practically every one I know, and many, many whom I don't know, so suggestive are the styles of different personalities. This is just the style for Josephine and that for Sue, I say, and I do hope they'll come in before the day is over. I have selected four typical modes to illustrate the chic you will always find.

Lyons velvet of golden brown is cleverly combined with metallic cloth in a new high-crowned shape with upturned brim. Ostrich pompon is dyed to match.

This saucy Poke of black satin is faced with pea green bengaline and repeats the green color note in the center of a gold lace rose. A shirred crown adds piquancy.

Here is a clever variation of the Poke. Fashioned of black satin, it flaunts a pert motif of fur and moire ribbon, and a marcasite ornamentation.

Metallic cloth blends its rich hues to decorate an off-the-face model. A pleated band of black satin threads its way through the upturned brim.

NEW ENGLAND EDITOR TELLS WHY HE IS FOR DAVIS

Ellery Sedgwick Says Coolidge "Can Sit on the Lid, but Cannot Keep It Down."

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Ellery Sedgwick of Boston, editor of the Atlantic Monthly, is for John W. Davis for the presidency and against President Coolidge because the latter "is no leader," and because, although he "can sit on the lid he can't keep it down," according to an authorized statement from Sedgwick, issued by the Democratic National Committee today. Sedgwick classifies himself as an independent in politics. His statement follows:

"For 30 years I have been accustomed to vote as an independent in our quadrennial elections, selecting my candidate according to the personalities, the issues and the necessities of the hour."

"In the light of the last four years of the republic's history, no independent can trust the existing Republican party. He can and does trust the President, but he knows that with all his excellent qualities, Calvin Coolidge is no leader. He can sit on the lid, but he can't keep it down. The independent voter likes the President's idea on the essentials of honesty, economics, the practical thrift, but from thrice bitter experience he knows that Mr. Coolidge's relation to Congress is like the weatherman's to a Nor'easter—he watches what happens. That is the simple truth."

"John W. Davis comes from a different breed. He can argue—no man better—but if needs must, he can fight. His experience with men and measures in this country is wide. Abroad it is immeasurably greater than Mr. Coolidge's. What Mr. Coolidge seeks to learn from maps, a small circle of friends, and Col. Harvey's reports, Mr. Davis knows at first-hand for himself."

"Whoever is elected President, the next Congress will be liberal. Mr. Davis is a liberal. He will not try to dam the flood, but will control it."

"Whoever is elected President, the United States will one day bear its share of the world's duties. Mr. Coolidge knows this, and would like to put his shoulder to the task, but the Republican party says No. But to his party, Mr. Davis will say Yes."

TRAFFIC JAM ENABLES MAN TO RECOVER STOLEN CAR

Brother of Owner Recognizes It and Policeman Arrests Driver, Who Confesses.

A traffic jam between Broadway and Sixth street, yesterday, aided Joseph de Roun, 3737 French street, to recover an automobile stolen Oct. 3. While Traffic Policeman Schuessler was straightening out the tangled traffic, De Roun's brother, Vito, pointed out a driver attempting to hurry by the halted machines. "Stop that man," he said, "he's driving my brother's car."

The driver was arrested, and taken to the Central District station where he gave his name and address as Fred Razor, 4200 Pleasant street. He admitted the theft, the police announced, and said he had bought an ignition key to fit the car for a nickel. Identification of the stolen machine was completed by Joseph de Roun.

HEAD OF PHILIPPINE SENATE HONORED BY JAPANESE

Quezon, on Recent Visit to Tokio, Was Guest of Diet Members at Banquet.

By the Associated Press. MANILA, Oct. 16.—Manuel Quezon, president of the Philippine Senate, and Sergio Osmena, a member of that body, who are returning to Manila from the United States by way of Europe and the Far West, were given a banquet at Tokio by members of the Japanese Diet recently, according to a cablegram received here today from Quezon by Manuel Roxas, speaker of the Philippine House of Representatives.

The cablegram read in part: "A dinner was given us by the Speaker and leading members of Parliament. We were requested to convey to the Philippine Legislature their appreciation of the reception given to the Japanese parliamentary mission which recently visited the Philippines."

CAR MEN GET INCREASE

72½ Cents an Hour New Scale for Boston Elevated Employees.

By the Associated Press. BOSTON, Oct. 16.—An increase of 2½ cents an hour was awarded to the more than 7000 union street car men and miscellaneous employees of the Boston Elevated Street Railway Co. last night by the board of arbitration, which had been considering counter-proposals of employees and the company. The employees had sought an increase of 25 cents an hour and the company had asked that the employees accept a 5 cent an hour reduction.

By the terms of the decision, a majority of the employees will receive a maximum of 72½ cents an hour, the highest rate ever paid street car men in Massachusetts, and said by the company's representative to be the second highest rate in the country.

New Treatment for Varicose Veins and Ulcers

Swollen veins are dangerous and often burst. Sufferers are advised to get a two-ounce, original bottle of Emerald Oil (made strength), at Wolff-Wilson Drug Co., Keffer Drug Co. and Johnson Bros. Drug Co. and start to reduce the veins and blemishes at once. Physicians recommend Emerald Oil: It is used in hospital practice, and a small bottle will last a long time, because it is very concentrated, and a little goes a long way. Apply night and morning with a soft brush as directed until the swelling is reduced to normal. So marvelously powerful is Emerald Oil that swollen glands and even gonorrhea disappear when used steadily.

DRINK WATER TO HELP WASH OUT KIDNEY POISON

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, Begin Taking Salts.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore don't get scared and supposed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which helps to remove the body's waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active. Drink lots of good water—you can't drink too much; also get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus relieving bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot cause lithia-water drink, which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

AUSTRALIAN HERE STUDIES TRAFFIC

Police Inspector of Sydney Says They Have Same
Problems as St. Louis.

Police Inspector Charles Turbet of Sydney, Australia, studying traffic problems in America, discovered that the problem in his city is surprisingly like that in St. Louis. With a population nearing the million mark, Sydney has a downtown district of narrow streets in which tram cars, omnibuses and privately-owned automobiles vie for the right-of-way. It has its no-parking rules and one-way streets, corner traffic policemen and a Traffic Bureau much like the one in St. Louis. And it has a liberty-loving public which in a large proportion resents the introduction of new traffic rules.

Inspector Turbet, as assistant superintendent of traffic at Sydney, is touring the larger cities of the United States and Canada, studying traffic problems preparatory to becoming superintendent of traffic when his superior retires Jan. 1. He started at San Francisco, visiting Los Angeles and Kansas City, and left last night for Minneapolis after which he will visit the larger cities of the East, embarking Nov. 19 from Vancouver.

View of Solution.
"The only solution of the traffic problem, as I see it, lies in the construction of private or municipal parking garages downtown."

Inspector Turbet said. "So far this is the only American idea that I believe would be practicable in Sydney. Los Angeles has a downtown garage of three stories, equipped with ramps, and constructed so that it can eventually be raised to 14 stories. Such structures eventually must be built in every large city and the public educated to know that street parking is impossible."

The Sydney traffic bureau has one distinct advantage over the St. Louis Bureau. There are but half as many automobiles, approximately 70,000, and a year's fatalities rarely exceed a dozen. "The ordinary working man is virtually barred from owning an automobile in Sydney," Turbet said. "The lowest-price car he can buy is the Ford, and the cheapest model costs about $700. Gasoline is three shillings the gallon, or about 50 cents, more than 5 times what you pay in America. Under these conditions, the individual driver generally uses his car less and is more cautious in order to avoid property damage."

DIRECTORS CHOSEN FOR INQUIRY INTO CRIMINAL JUSTICE

These Will Elect Officers and Executive Committee Which in Turn Will Name an Operating Head

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 14.—
Missourians who founded here yesterday the Missouri Association for Criminal Justice agreed that leadership and finance are chief factors to be considered in launching the organization's Statewide survey of the administration of criminal justice. The survey will be a basis for ever-continuing efforts for improvement.

They agreed also that the association has the opportunity to accomplish much in its investigation of criminal justice, crime causes and conditions, and its plans for remedial measures and efficient administration of justice.

30 Directors Selected.
Provision for leadership was begun with the selection of 30 directors, who later will elect officers, and an Executive Committee, which, in turn, will choose the Operating Director, or active executive. The directors, who are to meet soon, will also plan for raising necessary funds, raised entirely by subscription of individuals and organizations on the board of directors is divided evenly between St. Louis and suburbs, Kansas City and the rest of the State. The directors are:

St. Louis Group—Chancellor
Hadley of Washington University,
Arthur V. Lashly, Leo Fuller, Breckinridge Jones, Arthur T.
Morey, Festus J. Wade, X. P.
Willey, new president of the Missouri Bar Association; Mrs. Irwin Beitman, Dr. Emmett P. North, president of the State Board of Health; Mrs. Howard Bailey, Kansas City group—Lester Hall, Leslie Lyons, Howard McCutcheon,
Charles D. Mill, Mrs. George H.
Gonzalez, Mrs. Genevieve Turk,
Mrs. Rose M. Ohaus, Fred Sharon,
John I. Williamson, Dr. George P.
Baily. Others—Sanford Sellers of Lexington, Mrs. R. A. Brown of St. Joseph, Charles Buffum of Lebanon, R. E. Culver of St.
Joseph, Dr. J. A. Serena of Cape Girardeau, Sherman Houston of Malta Bend, Dean J. P. McBaine of the University of Missouri law school, Columbia; Dr. C. B. Miller of Springfield, Charles Orr of Webb City, Dean Walter Williams of the University of Missouri journalism school, Columbia.

Lashly Temporary Chairman.
Lashly, who had charge of work preliminary to the organization, as chairman of the Missouri Bar Association Committee on Criminal Justice and Procedure, was made temporary chairman of the board, but it was not possible to hold a meeting yesterday.

Emphasis was laid on the desire of the association to co-operate with public officials rather than antagonize them. In support of this plan it was arranged to admit as associate members—without the vote—the following officials if they wish to join, and many of them are expected to do so: Judges of the Supreme, Appellate and Circuit Courts, the Governor and Attorney-General, Circuit Attorney of St.
Louis, all Prosecuting Attorneys and Sheriffs, chief police officer of each incorporated city and heads of various State penal organizations and institutions. Organization representatives and individuals will comprise active membership.

The Missouri Association for Criminal Justice had its beginning in a conference here yesterday attended by representatives of civil, social service and commercial organizations. In the Hall of Representatives, Guy A. Thompson, retiring president of the Missouri Bar Association, who inaugurated
the plan, presided. The groundwork had been laid and the conference approved unanimously the pending application for incorporation of the association. A certificate of incorporation was obtained forthwith and in the afternoon the delegates assembled as in the first meeting of the association. They adopted by-laws which the Lashly committee submitted, but not without making some changes.

Suggestion as to Name.
Circuit Judge David H. Harris of Fulton, one of a number of Judges present, suggested that the "Criminal Justice" part of the name was perhaps unhappy, because the association aims to defeat "the kind of justice that is sometimes criminal."

Thompson was directed in a resolution to prepare an address to the people of Missouri to set forth the association's objects. Attorney-General Barrett attended the conference and declared in an address that crystallization of public sentiment will be a necessary factor in the work. One of the most interested persons present was Chief of Police O'Brien of St.
Louis, who expressed satisfaction with the crime survey plan. Circuit Attorney Sidener of St. Louis and two of his assistants were present.

Organizations represented in the meeting constituted a broad cross-section of activities in the State.
Among state-wide groups represented were: Bar Association, Conference for Social Welfare, Missouri Association, Missouri Welfare

League, Associated Industries of Missouri, State League of Women Voters, Antislavery League, Automobile Club of Missouri, Missouri
Bankers' Association, Prosecuting Attorneys' Association.

ments of both the MASON & HAMLIN—AMPICO and

WARM RECEPTION
FOR LA FOLLETTE
AT DES MOINESMany Automobiles Beside Progressive Banners, Railway Station Where Senator Arrives.MAKES SPEECH ON FINANCIAL ISSUESDeclares Bankers, After War, Sent Money Abroad
in Order to Advance
Interest Rates.By PAUL Y. ANDERSON, A Washington Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 18.—After La Follette made a savage attack on the Federal Reserve System in a speech here last night, charged that its policies were dictated by New York bankers.

Declaring that the agricultural panic of 1929-31, resulting in bankruptcy of 600,000 farmers, 60,000 rural business men, was liberally planned and precipitated by the board after a secret meeting with powerful bankers, La Follette said:

"The Progressives will make this Federal Reserve system the ends for which it is created, or they will wipe it of existence. We are going to make banking credit the servant of the people, not their master. We charged, in addition, after the war the banks deluged the price of Liberty Bonds to 90 and under, bought them those prices, and then raised the value again to par. As a result by which the people might have control of bank credit, he declared that if elected President, he would propose the establishment of cooperative banks, with Government backing.

Imposing Array of Answers
It was apparent upon La Follette's arrival in Des Moines yesterday afternoon that he reached a community at last where he is perfectly respected. To La Follette, obviously, to a La Follette supporter here, do not mean that one is rabidly discontented, or even in moderate circumstances. Indeed, many of the "very best" people seem eager to have it known that they were supporting his candidacy.

Instead of the usual service ordered by the local committee, the Senator's party, at station, there appeared an imposing array of Cadillac, Lincoln and the like, openly, almost ostentatiously, driven by their owners, bearing "La Follette and Wheeler" banners. They did not seem intimidated by their purpose, their company. It was clear that in Iowa, one might be for La Follette and yet be socially impeccable.

$2500 in Admission Charges.
Nor was there anything unusual about the gathering which the Senator addressed in the big Coliseum. Its number, was estimated at more than 5000, of whom 1000 had paid a total of $2500 to get in. Remaining 4000 or more were admitted free. It was a gay and silent audience. A big band of rolicking airs, and a patriotic local band in fetching costumes regaled the crowd, with songs fore the speaker arrived.

The stage was crowded with cameramen, one of the men here being a woman delegate to the Democratic national convention. She said that she was "not a West street Democrat," and wanted to make her new profession of faith publicly.

Despite the dramatic character of the subject, the Senator received close attention, and was interrupted by cheers on numerous occasions. He was in the better speaking form than he had been the preceding night in St. Louis, talking vigorously for nearly two hours and being urged by the crowd to speak longer. It was his best speaking since his appearance in Detroit a week ago.

Credit and its influence upon the condition of the farmer formed the burden of his speech, but delivered a forceful attack upon the Executive Committee of the United States, and one of his authors was Senator Cummings of Iowa, and he paid no small tribute to Brookhart, another Iowa Senator. Brookhart a candidate for re-election.

Those two crimes—the one the Executive Committee under the last Democratic administration and the other the present Republican administration, and the passing of the Executive Committee—these two crimes broke the back of American agriculture, threw 600,000 farmers into bankruptcy, drove 1,000,000 men from the farms, ruined the country, and we are working it back," the speaker declared.

"With the single exception of the war, they caused more loss, anguish and suffering to

TO DISPOSE OF MUSCLE SHOALS

Body Named by Congress to Handle Matter, Kearns Says.
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Withdrawal by Henry Ford of his offer for Muscle Shoals clears the way, Representative Kearns, Republican of Ohio, declared today after a visit at the White House, for disposition of the plant through a commission as suggested by President Coolidge in his message to Congress last December.

CHARLES NAGEL URGES ELECTION OF COOLIDGE

every other point, which I do not. I should have to oppose him on this ground alone. We are told that if elected he would present no danger, because he could not secure the adoption of the amendments. True, but that explanation over-reaches itself. His following is made up of a collection of discordant protestors. He has not done what Ramsey MacDonald did in hammering his following into shape upon the anvil of conviction. But be that as it may, I would not if I felt ever so sure, stultify myself by giving support to constitutional amendments that in my judgment strike at the foundation of our institutions.

Personal Liberty Discussed.
"Again, La Follette is applauded as the champion of personal liberty, and rightly so. No true American can forget his record in the days of blind intolerance, cowardly opposition and vindictive persecution by public and by private agencies; when it could be truly said that 'war hath no fury like the non-combatant.' I cannot be unmindful of the injustice suffered by men and women during that distressing period. But that was and has ceased to be the issue.

"I assume that Coolidge is the only candidate who can be elected by popular vote. Indeed, in many quarters it is the accepted purpose to defeat him, only to throw the election into the House. That would mean resort to the worst political bargain-counter in our history. It is utterly at variance with La Follette's championship of the direct vote of the people.

"This is the first time in our history that a great people appear to be invited to deliberately create an emergency and to welcome it as a triumph of popular sagacity. We are asked to invoke the gambler's luck, leaving all to the chance of a Congress which was not even elected with a view to such a decision. The one practical certainty is that the candidate who gets the larger popular vote would be definitely eliminated from consideration by the powerful representatives in Congress elected several years ago."

WARM RECEPTION FOR LA FOLLETTE AT DES MOINES

the money of depositors, he asserted that the bankers had assumed their present control of credit by violating the moral obligation under which they were permitted to do business—the obligation to lend money to the people who deposited it.

"When a surplus of money appeared in the war and interest rates began to fall because of the abundance of money to lend, the bankers deliberately exported great sums and invested it in foreign countries, in order to keep the rates of interest high in the United States," he continued.

Retracting his declaration that $9,000,000,000 of American capital had been put in foreign investments since 1918, many of the investments precarious in character, he said that "these bankers are now clamoring for a large army and navy, which they may send to protect those investments in case of trouble."

"I'm against it!" he shouted, to the accompaniment of a storm of yells and handclapping.

Control of Credit.

Bank credit in the United States is now controlled and dominated by two institutions, he continued: J. P. Morgan & Co. and the National City Bank, owned by the Standard Oil Co. The Federal Reserve System, established ostensibly for the purpose of breaking this money monopoly, had been used by those two financial organizations as a means to carry out their designs, he said.

Prior to the appearance of Senator La Follette on the platform,

Louis Cook, Progressive State chairman, read a circular letter which he said had been sent to all agents, section foremen, and roundhouse foremen by the superintendent of the Rock Island Railroad, H. E. Allen.

The letter stated that the railroad would be "seriously hampered" by the election of La Follette, and urged the agents and foremen to form either Coolidge or Davis clubs at every station along the line. The foremen should have themselves elected chairmen of such clubs and the agents should manage to be made treasurers, it continued.

Without expressing any choice between the Republican and Democratic candidates, it said: "We should put forth all our efforts to support either Coolidge or Davis."

The reading of the letter evoked a tempest of jeers and derisive laughter. La Follette departed this morning for Minneapolis where he speaks tonight.

Argentine Thanks Japanese.

By the Associated Press.
BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 16.—President De Alvear has sent a cablegram to Emperor Yoshihito of Japan expressing the appreciation of the Argentine Government and people for the honors conferred in Japan upon fellow countrymen, Zanni and Beltrame. The message refers to Major Pedro Zanni, the Argentine aviator who arrived recently in Japan from Amsterdam on his attempt at a flight around the world, and Zanni's mechanic.

MISSING CASHIER REPORTED ON HIS WAY HOME RICH

Tidings Welcome to Residents of Gorin, Mo., Who Had Deposited $350,000 in Closed Bank

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

GORIN, Mo., Oct. 15.—Residents of this town, as well as some St. Louisans, who had dealings with the Citizens' Trust Co. here, have been in low spirits and low funds since the bank failed, last July. Now they hear good news.

"Roy Myers is coming back," is the welcome tidings. "When?" a few skeptics ask. "Next week," is the positive answer.

Which is good news, of course. Myers, cashier of this town's bank, suddenly departed from Gorin, and Missouri, a few days before the bank closed. Since then it has been reported through his friends that he was busy down in Old Mexico operating a silver mine, and that he hoped for more luck in mining than he had in banking.

Right or wrong, those whose deposits were tied up in the bank felt more than a nominal interest in that silver mine. They wished Myers good fortune and a speedy return to Gorin. Two and a half months passed.

Rumors of Bonanza. The latest news, coupled with the predicted return of the erstwhile cashier, is that the silver mine has proved a bonanza. Few bank cashiers are believed to have struck it so rich. And the bank certainly needs plenty of silver, if it is to pay off its obligations.

Since taking charge of the bank on July 31, the State Finance Department has been checking up, and has found a quantity of bad paper. From a confidential source it also has been learned that approximately $184,000 has not been accounted for. "Depleted cash reserves" was the assigned reason for the bank's inability to meet its current obligations.

Although located in a small town, the bank transacted big business in big towns, one of its customers being the Interstate Casualty Co., an insurance firm with headquarters in the Times Building, St. Louis, which went into receivership last Aug. 14, with prospects that its paid-in capital stock of $500,000 would be wiped out.

The Interstate had $122,715 deposited in the Citizens' Trust Co., and consequently its receivers are interested in Cashier Myers' whereabouts. How much of the deposit it will get back has not been determined.

Jerome B. McCutchan, now of St. Louis, a former director of the bank, was a vice president of the Interstate and of the American General Indemnity Corporation, another insurance concern whose merger with the Interstate was announced last February, but has never been approved by the State Insurance Department.

Stock in the Citizens' Trust Co., with a par value of $25,000, and a note for $85,000, signed by McCutchan and two others, were listed as doubtful assets of the Interstate by its receiver. Another doubtful asset was $25,000 par value stock of the Granite Bend Mining and Merchandising Co. The location of this mine has not been established and an investigation is being made to learn if it has any connection with the Mexican silver mine enterprise. Associates of Myers think he went to Mexico direct from a conference in St. Louis this week before the bank closed, at which the bank's pressing obligations were discussed. Myers, it is said, declared the bank could not continue unless funds were supplied immediately.

ately. It was suggested to him that he seek aid from his relatives and friends in Gorin and Chillicothe. Instead, he decided to take a more active interest in his Mexican silver mine.

A member of a pioneer and well-to-do family in this part of Missouri, Myers was widely known and respected. Naturally, his absence caused talk and it is understood his relatives have been as anxious as any that he return and assist in straightening out the bank's tangled affairs. The State bank examiners have not relinquished hope that the bank can be reorganized and reopened. Its failure worked hardships on its creditors in this district, not to mention the Interstate Casualty Co. Deposits of $250,030 and total resources of $466,031 were shown in the bank's last statement, as of June 30. Loans totaled $419,857, and bills payable, $59,219. The capital was $50,000, but there was no surplus. Officers of bank were listed as follows: John W. Thomas, president; G. C. Hill, vice president; R. T. Myers, cashier, and Anna Monroe, assistant cashier. Directors were: President Thomas, A. Smith Myers, D. E. Myers, I. L. Bounds, R. W. Snelling, F. C. Bertram and Cashier Myers.

The Endowment Insurance Plan

Five-year endowment policies are being issued in amounts of $500 or more by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company to persons between the ages of 10 and 65 years of age, payable to the Sisters of St. Mary.

Each man or woman taking out a policy for $1000 or more is entitled to free hospital service at St. Mary's Infirmary during periods of sickness for the rest of his or her life.

The premiums are payable annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

At the end of five years the face value of the policy, with earned dividends, will be paid to the Sisters of St. Mary.

If the insured dies within five years, all payments cease and the face value of the policy will be paid to the Sisters of St. Mary at once.

Insurance is selected as the means by which this fund shall be raised. It is a practical, businesslike method for endowing your hospital.

The First Hospital
founded by the Sisters of St. Mary

THE first hospital established in St. Louis by the Sisters of St. Mary was the old St. Mary's Infirmary, opened in 1877 at Fifteenth and Papin streets in a building which formerly had been a residence. The building was poorly adapted for hospital purposes, but it marked a new era in the nursing of the sick and poor by the Sisters.

Hampered by the lack of funds and enduring personal hardships, the Sisters constantly increased the scope of their work. In 1889 the new St. Mary's Infirmary, a five-story structure, was opened. It was erected on the lot in front of the old residence.

Their labors among the afflicted convinced the Sisters of the imperative need for a hospital in St. Louis for the care of tuberculosis patients. This led to the construction of Mount St. Rose Sanatorium for Tuberculosis, which is one of the best known institutions of its kind in the United States.

Perhaps the greatest achievement of the Sisters of St. Mary was the construction of the new $1,250,000 St. Mary's Hospital, opened in June, 1924. The Sisters assumed a heavy debt to build and equip this great hospital.

A campaign is now being conducted to relieve the Sisters of the burden of this debt, and to endow St. Mary's Hospital. The endowment insurance plan, by which five-year endowment life insurance policies are issued payable to the Sisters of St. Mary, has the approval of Archbishop John J. Glennon and business laymen of the city.

In more than a half century of faithful work in St. Louis, the foremost aim of the Sisters has been the care of the sick poor, regardless of creed or nationality.

PLANT BOUGHT FOR $100,000
AT FORECLOSURE SALE

Factory and Land of Warren Steel Casting Company Purchased by Mortgage Firm.

The factory and land of the Warren Steel Casting Co., with offices at 3400 Maury avenue, was purchased at foreclosure sale, at the courthouse yesterday by the Chouteau Mortgage Co., for $100,000.

The sale was conducted by the Chouteau Trust Co., trustee under a deed of trust given in September, 1923, to secure a loan of $100,000. The foreclosure followed default on a note for $10,000 and taxes of $2400. The company came out of a receivership a year ago and a reorganization took place and the $100,000 was borrowed to pay creditors. It has not been operated since Aug. 15.

ST. LOUIS YOUTH WHO MARRIED
SISTER GETS THREE YEARS

Wife and Two Children in Court in Cincinnati When Harry Elmer Scott, 26, Is Sentenced.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 15.—Harry Elmer Scott, 26 years old, a St. Louis meatcutter, who married his 17-year-old sister, Marguerite, was sentenced to serve three years in the Federal Boys' Reformatory at Chillicothe, Conn., by Federal Judge Hickenlooper here yesterday. He was charged specifically with violation of the Mann Act in transporting his sister-wife and their two children, Betty Jane, 16 months old, and Pauline, 10 weeks old, from Indianapolis to Cincinnati.

Federal officers testified that Scott and his sister had drifted together while living with an aunt in St. Louis. They stated they were married in 1922 at Adrian, Mich. Scott giving the name of Bert A. Snider, and had since resided at Detroit, Indianapolis, Cincinnati and Covington as Mr. and Mrs. Snider.

Scott had pleaded guilty but his counsel sought to mitigate the punishment by arguing that he was the victim of heredity and environment. Analogies were drawn between the Scott case and the relations of Lot and his daughters and Cleopatra and her parents.

Judge Hickenlooper said he was sentencing Scott principally to assure himself that the brother and sister would be separated. The girl and the two children were in the courtroom when Scott was tried. Both she and her brother wept when sentence was passed.

SUES SURGEONS FOR $250,000

Father Alleges One of Boy's Kidneys Was Destroyed in Operation.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Oct. 15.—Alleging recklessness in the manner in which they performed an operation on his 14-year-old son, Charles Jay Davis, president of the Davis Taxator Granite Co. of New York City, has filed suit for $250,000 damages against Dr. John F. Erdmann of New York City, and Drs. Edward Weber and J. Flaiding Black, of White Plains.

The papers charge that the three surgeons performed an appendicitis operation on the boy in May, 1918, in such a manner that his left kidney was destroyed and his right kidney impaired. Counsel for the father has asked that the case be given preference on the trial calendar for next February on the ground that the boy's life is in jeopardy and his condition is growing worse. This request has been granted.

RHEUMATISM

Mr. James H. Allen of 287 Taylor St., Rochester, N. Y., suffered for years from rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to move. He finally decided, after years of suffering, that no one can be cured of rheumatism until the accumulated acids in the system are completely broken down and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he bought and used Allenrhur's Rheumatism Remedy. After years of trying he found that Allenrhur's Rheumatism Remedy was the only remedy that completely broke down the accumulated acids in his system and expelled them from the body.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allenrhur's, to others who were suffering with what might be called rheumatism. After years of trying he found that Allenrhur's Rheumatism Remedy was the only remedy that completely broke down the accumulated acids in his system and expelled them from the body.

The blessed relief this marvelous remedy quickly gives has made thousands of friends," says Allenrhur. "Allenrhur's Rheumatism Remedy is the only remedy that completely broke down the accumulated acids in his system and expelled them from the body. It is Mr. Allen's own discovery.

BEGINS DUTIES AS NEW PUBLIC SAFETY DIRECTOR

John F. Christophel, Promoted From Position of Secretary to Succeeds J. N. McKelvey. John F. Christophel, who was appointed Director of Public Safety by Mayor Kiel yesterday, took charge of his new office today, succeeding James N. McKelvey, resigned. By his elevation from his former position of secretary to the Director, he advances from a salary of $2400 a year to $8000. Christophel, who is 33 years old, has been in the city's employ 13 years, having served successively as building inspector, permit clerk in the building division and secretary to McKelvey. His appointment as director was made upon the recommendation of the Republican City Committee. As secretary he frequently represented McKelvey in various phases of the director's official business and acquired a wide acquaintance with the public as well as with the duties of the position. For some time he has been active as a political worker in the Twenty-third Ward and made speeches in behalf of McKelvey's unsuccessful candidacy for Sheriff in the August primary. Christophel is married and resides at 4481 Forest Park boulevard.

Otto Krieg, who was Deputy Building Commissioner under McKelvey, resigned today, when the new director appointed William C. Becker Building Commissioner. While Krieg would not discuss his reasons, it is generally believed that he thought he should have been promoted to commissioner. A number of architects and builders favored Becker's promotion from department engineer. Ervin O. Aegerter was promoted from an assistant commissionership to succeed Krieg as deputy. McKelvey himself served as Building Commissioner, without extra salary.

Warns Middle-Aged Women To Check High Blood Pressure

Thousands of women at times are in danger of high blood pressure. It is caused by poisonous waste matter accumulating in the system or the weakening of one or more organs. This forces the heart to do more work and raises blood pressure. The symptoms are dizziness, shortness of breath, head pains, flushed face, nervousness or sleeplessness. High blood pressure must be treated and stopped, for everyone knows it brings on Bright's disease, apoplexy and often sudden death. It is too dangerous and quick acting to go without heeding its symptoms. Norma is a doctor's prescription for high blood pressure that has been used with great success. Being a purely vegetable medicine it contains no habit-forming drugs, is harmless, and works in such a way that it drives out waste matter, lessens the duty of the over-taxed heart and reduces blood pressure swiftly and safely. Often one bottle brings great relief. Get a bottle of Norma today and free yourself of life-shortening high blood pressure. streets of this city, taken into the country and forced against his will to marry a young woman was told to police here by G. F. Edge, head of an investment company. According to Edge's narrative, five men participated in the kidnaping, these being joined later by 100 hooded men. One of the latter, he said, performed the marriage ceremony and then gave him a lecture. Edge announced he would not consider the marriage binding.

BOND FOR MURDER DEFENDANT DENIED BY SUPREME COURT

Case That of Glen Perkins Held at Macon, Mo., for Killing Garnet Sexton.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 15.—An application for a writ of habeas corpus to obtain the release on bond of Glen Perkins, confined in the Macon, Mo., jail pending trial on a charge of first degree murder, was denied today by the Supreme Court en banc. The court examined the transcript of the preliminary hearing at which Perkins was bound over for trial, and held his commitment was legal and that there was no ground for granting the habeas corpus writ sought by his attorneys.

The court did not hand down an opinion, merely entering the denial of the writ on the court minutes. Perkins was charged with killing Garnet Sexton in Macon County on Aug. 1 last. He was arrested the following day and on Aug. 11 was given a preliminary hearing, at which he was bound over to the Circuit Court and ordered committed to jail without bond. The attorneys then brought the application to the Supreme Court, contending the evidence submitted in the preliminary hearing did not support the first degree murder charge, and that the refusal to admit Perkins to bond was illegal.

BAGGAGE OF PHAFF SEIZED BY AUTHORITIES IN FRANCE

Papers of New Yorker, Charged With Liquor Piracy, Said to Disclose Deals With Britons.

By the Associated Press.
BREST, Oct. 15.—The baggage of Max Jerome Phaff, German-American resident of New York City, being tried here on the charge of complicity in a piracy in connection with the looting of the French steamer Mulhouse of 36,000 cases of whiskey off the Canadian coast, last June, was seized by the French authorities today. The baggage when opened, it was said, contained papers showing deals with important houses in London for the purchase of whiskey and other liquors. The papers, it was declared, also referred to the chartering of a vessel last June at Halifax, N. S., for the transportation of 6000 cases of whiskey to America.

PRESIDENT'S DELAY ON SUGAR COSTLY, SHAVER DECLARES

Democrat Says Coolidge Apparently Means to Wait Until After Election.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Declaring President Coolidge apparently had decided to delay action on the sugar tariff petition until after the election, Chairman Shaver of the Democratic National Committee said in a formal statement today that the President's "caution" was costing the public heavily during every day of delay. "Chairman Marvin of the United States Tariff Commission, speaking presumably as the proxy of President Coolidge," said the Democratic chairman, "gives the information that the latter intends to postpone for another indefinite period any official action on the commission's recommendation that the present producers' tariff on sugar be reduced by half-cent a pound. Apparently the President intends to defer until after election the decision which many persons believe will favor the best sugar trust when eventually it is announced."

IDENTIFIED AS MAIL ROBBERS

Two Men Held at Cairo Accused of Part in Carliyle Holdup.

By the Associated Press.
CAIRO, Ill., Oct. 15.—Joe Rocker and John Ryan, alias Wolfe, arrested here as the result of an investigation into the theft of two automobiles, were identified today by Capt. W. L. Wainman of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad police as two of the men who robbed the depot at Carliyle, Ill., several days ago and escaped with a package of mail. Joey Yates and Will Belcher also are being held in connection with the Carliyle robbery as well as the recent bank robbery at Dowell, Ill., in which $1100 was secured. If Yates and Belcher are not found to be implicated in the mail and bank robberies they will be returned to the penitentiary for violation of paroles. They were convicted of stealing sugar from a B. & O. shipper and Ryan and Yates are said to be from Gillespie, Ill., while Belcher's home is at Mounds, near here. Investigation led by Special Agent Dallas Winchester of the Illinois Central Railway at Mounds led to the arrests. Capt. Wainman was in the depot at Carliyle when the robbers entered.

Armstrong's Linoleum
for Every Floor in the House
For the Kitchen
Armstrong's Inset Tile Inlaid Linoleum, with border, is the floor of this attractive kitchen.

You'll Be Prouder of Your Kitchen with a Floor Like This
THINK of the handsomest kitchen you have seen. Its floor was as modern, as gleaming and spotless as its equipment, wasn't it? Such a floor adds beauty to an attractive kitchen.
A floor of Armstrong's Linoleum makes any kitchen better-looking. The floor shown in the picture is an inset tile linoleum with a plain border. It is bright and cheerful, charmingly colorful. It is modern. It is handsome.
Easy to clean—and permanent
A kitchen floor is a hard-worked floor. Dishwater splashes on it, grease spatters on it, many feet track on it.
These small disasters are never important on a floor of Armstrong's Linoleum. A quick wiping is generally all the care it needs. For inlaid linoleum an occasional waxing and polishing keeps your floor lustrous, and increases its beauty as years pass. Varnishing is recommended for printed linoleum.
It is comfortable, too, a floor of linoleum. The hundreds of steps that you make each day in your kitchen are less tiring on this resilient, quiet floor.
Where you can choose linoleum
Good furniture and department stores carry an interesting selection of Armstrong's Linoleum. You can see linoleum suitable for your kitchen; also the new designs and colorings for living-rooms, dining-rooms, bedrooms, sun porches, etc. These modern linoleum floors are being used now in all the rooms of many fine homes.
When you buy linoleum a good merchant will suggest that you have it laid for permanency. This means that a trained linoleum layer will cement your linoleum down over a lining of builders' deadening felt. The seams will be closely joined, and waterproof cement will be used at the seams and round the edges. The floor will then lie perfectly flat through all changes of weather, will never need retrimming, and will endure for many years.
Write for free sample and booklet
Let us send you a sample of Armstrong's Linoleum, together with our booklet, "New Floors for Old." It contains many colorplates of the new patterns, and exact information about laying and caring for linoleum floors.
If you have some particular problem of working out color plans for one room or for your entire house, write for advice to our Bureau of Interior Decoration. No charge.

WOMEN DISCUSS POLITICAL ISSUES

Representatives of Three National Tickets Make Addresses Before Town Club.

Three eminent women speakers, representing the three national tickets contending for supremacy at the polls Nov. 4, spoke on behalf of their respective candidates before an audience of more than 200, mostly women, at the Town Club Tuesday night.

Miss Eleanor Barker, a practicing lawyer of Indianapolis and a member of the Republican National Speakers' Bureau, spoke of Coolidge and Dawes.

Mrs. Glenn Plumb, widow of the author of the famous Plumb plan for Government ownership of railroads, spoke for La Follette and Wheeler.

Mrs. Emily Newell Blair, vice-chairman of the Democratic National Committee, spoke for Davis and Bryan.

Each speaker announced she would pay no attention to any argument introduced by another, but would devote herself entirely to the constructive presentation of her case. Except for Miss Barker, to whose lot in the drawing for time on the program, fell first place, the challenge of the preceding speaker proved too tempting to be ignored. Both Mrs. Plumb and Mrs. Blair indulged in the peppery retort to Miss Barker and to each other and no doubt Miss Barker's original complacency would have been disturbed had she had a chance at rebuttal. Yet for all women's reputed proneness to resort to personalities in an argument, these three speakers came through at the end smiling amiably as cordial toward one another as when they sat down at the banquet table.

The personality of each of the speakers was interesting as reflecting the order each represented.

Praises G. O. P. Achievements.
Miss Barker was cool, placid, complacent, devoting her speech to a review of Republican achievements and completely ignoring any question of wrong-doing or failure of in the present administration.

She asserted the Republican belief in a high protective tariff; attributed to the Fordney-McCumber law the revival of prosperity and recovery from unemployment and hard times induced by deflation after the war.

The hard times among the farmers she attributed to two seasons of drought. She pointed to the many treaties signed and to the Dawes and Hughes plans as evidence of sufficient and superior foreign policy. She claimed Republican credit for reduction of taxes, collection of foreign loans, reduction of foreign debts, the immigration bill, soldiers' compensation, budget system, etc.

She vigorously attacked the La Follette Supreme Court plank as an assault upon the Constitution. She did not suppose women generally understood such problems as reparations and the foreign debt, but she believed through a native sense of economy they understood Calvin Coolidge and would vote for him for his stand upon that point alone.

Mrs. Plumb Makes Reply.
Mrs. Plumb was second speaker with a high-sounding voice, enthusiasm, fire, youth. She announced forthwith she would have to abandon her prepared speech as a order to correct statements made by her predecessor.

"Time is responsible for the peace that has come to us more than anything the Republican administration has done since the war," she began. Upon the tariff she said, "It is a robber tax which has taken $4,000,000 from the pockets of the people and placed $4,000,000 in the pockets of those in control of the situation."

The budget law, she declared was first passed during a Wilson administration, vetoed by him because of a defect in it, afterward passed by votes from all parties, so that it could not be called primarily and solely a Republican achievement.

The Dawes plan was described as a scheme to allow Germany to pay her debts by borrowing from Wall street, but she asserted it is not conducive to better feeling between that country, England and France.

Mrs. Plumb spoke in the best of spirit, a little triumphantly as she referred to the audience of more than 800 persons she had heard were listening to her candidate in the Coliseum at that moment. "If this agitation does nothing more than afford these three-ring circuses, which are arousing people to an interest in the big economic questions, it will have accomplished its purpose," she said.

Mrs. Blair Cites Scandals.
Mrs. Blair attacked her subject as the seasoned fighter. She could by a process of elimination tell women why they should not vote for the other candidates, but she knew women too well, and how their sympathies were aroused by abuse. She must, however, stop to correct some of Miss Barker's assertions. Was the most corrupt administration, she asked, to be represented as the most progressive? The speaker did not admit that only Republicans were dishonest and only Democrats honest. Republicans, she declared, had become light-headed, irresponsible, drunk from the landslide of four years ago, but indorsement at the polls next month would indict the entire Republican party.

Staunchly she submitted that in conducting the oil investigation and uncovering Republican failures in the last two years, the Democrats had done their work better than had the Republicans the first two years of the administration.

By the time Mrs. Blair had got through her review of Republican shortcomings, there was not much of the 20-minute allotment in which to build up the constructive case for John W. Davis. However, there seemed to be no question in her mind as to the Democrats having the most attractive candidate this year, anyway. She believed would resolve themselves in the selection of the best man, and there could be no doubt, there simply was no room for argument, that the Democrats this year have the most attractive and impeccable candidate.

FIVE KNOCKOUTS AND ONE FOUL FEATURE AMATEUR BOUT

Billy Mulligan's Defeat And Joe Neist's Knockout Surprise Ringside Fans

Soldier Fighter Who Stopped Jimmy Dugan Makes Poor Showing Against Lighthweight Joe Young—Little Stops Clever Lightweight Foe.

By John E. Wray,
Sports Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

James Solari, who cajoles the youth of St. Louis and environs into supplying fistic entertainment for the high glory of a medal, instead of cash, thought he had a great card of 12 amateur boxing bouts arranged last night.

But when the tumult and the shouting had died only two contests stood out as prize-worthy exhibitions from the standpoint of skill. The other 10 ranged from an opening contest in which the promoters robbed the cradle to provide principals, to a face-making event between two novices, one of whom forgot whether it was his feet or his hands that he was expected to work with.

Five knockouts, five judges' decisions, one referee's verdict and one verdict on a foul completed the list of fights, which provided a double portion of comedy, mixed in with a little pathos.

Billy Mulligan Defeated. The feature event itself fell flatter than Mrs. Newwed's first biscuits. Billy Mulligan, a poorly conditioned Jefferson Barracks soldier, who had won the prize at a previous show by trimming the redoubtable knockout king, Jimmy Dugan, was a hot favorite. But the enthusiasm soon cooled. He failed to show anything whatever against the rangy light-heavyweight, Joe Young. Joe was awkward, and slower than a Scotchman reaching for the lunch check. Nevertheless, he shook the surprised Mr. Mulligan from dome to foundation with a good straight arm punch and speedily wiped the scornful smile from the mouth of the soldier. In the end he had the ruddy Mulligan hanging on, though not badly hurt. It would seem that there are enough amateurs in this vicinity without pressing 65-pound children into service. But two such opened the evening's entertainment. They should have been at home listening to bedtime stories.

Burke Wins Cleverly. The most workmanlike bout of the evening was supplied by Eddie Burke of the Sherman Park Community Center and Les Manning, a South Broadway 112-pounder. Burke was cool and clever in taking advantage of openings. He shot straight to the mark and seldom gave Manning a chance to explode his right hand, which he obviously carried at full power. Burke made Manning miss repeatedly and himself scored heavily with both gloves.

The closest display of straight hitting was given by Tom Derby in his bout with Pinis Deveria of the Barracks. Derby still has the terrible defensive habit of holding both gloves up to his face, but when he cuts loose he hits straight, true and hard with both hands, to head and body. He rocked the soldier boy severely, but his inexperience handicapped him. Deveria himself showed both courage and perseverance and had no time for anything else going on around him.

St. Louis Woman Golfer Honored

Mrs. J. A. Corbett Named for Executive Committee of Western Association.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—Officers of the Women's Western Golf Association for next year are to be elected on Oct. 20 when the annual meeting and luncheon will be held in Chicago. Mrs. Farlin H. Ball of Chicago, after serving two years as president, will retire and the regular nominee for that position is Mrs. J. W. Douglas of Barrington, Ill.

Other officers are to move up a notch, as does Mrs. Douglas, unless unexpected opposition develops, making Mrs. B. C. Hardenbrook of Skokie Country Club, first vice president, Mrs. Robert Cutting of Hinsdale Golf Club, second vice president, Mrs. Paul Walker of Exmoor Country Club, corresponding secretary and Mrs. E. E. Harwood of Olympia Fields recording secretary. Mrs. H. L. Monroe of South Shore Country Club remains as treasurer.

Among others named for members of the executive committee which includes the officers of the association, are Mrs. E. H. Vincent, Kansas City, Mrs. James P. Clarke, Oklahoma City, Mrs. James A. Corbett, St. Louis, and Mrs. H. S. Gelsamer, Birmingham, Ala.

The association has just closed its most successful season, although rain in torrents bothered the women at their championship meet, which was held at Onwatawa, except for two days when the flood drove the play to Shore Acres. Miss Edith Cummings won the championship by defeating the former title holder, Miss Miriam Burns of Kansas City in the final.

Ramacciotti Misses Practice Due to Injury

Billiken's Plunging Fullback
Nursing Bruised Leg; Kapl Takes His Place.

The St. Louis University football squad goes through its last scrimmage session this afternoon in preparation for the tilt with Loyola University of Chicago, which will be played at the athletic field Saturday. Since the beginning of the week Coach Savage has been giving his men strenuous doses of scrumming medicine both on offense and defense, and he has also been bearing down hard on a protection against the Loyola forward pass attack which is the card up Coach Kluge's sleeve and which may decide the result of the contest.

In general, the squad has stood up well under the battering. Fullback Ramacciotti, the spearhead of the Billiken attack, was not on the field last night, but will be ready for Saturday. The powerful back is carrying one shin in an ice pack as treatment for a slight bruise injury which he suffered in the smashing Rolla game. The hurt did not develop until two days after the game, and is not of a serious nature. Left End Kahle is also still on the sick list, and although in uniform, favors his injured shoulder, and does not participate in hard play. He will probably be ready for Loyola, though. Kahle is playing his first year on the squad, and has made a good impression and worked his way to first-string end.

The athletic field is beginning to assume a stadium-like appearance, with the erection of temporary stands, which was begun a few days ago, and which may be completed by Saturday. The new stands are of the 15-tier portable type, and will be used to fill in all the intervening spaces between the existing structures. They are expected to increase the capacity of the park to about 16,000.

Al Kapl, who played his second game of football last week, is being groomed as a replacement for Ramacciotti when the Billiken are in action Saturday. Kapl has shown up splendidly in the games in which he has participated so far, making a first down against Army in the first play of his career and ripping through the Rolla wall in last Saturday's game. His chin jabs his tendency to fumble, and he has been undergoing instruction to remedy this for the past few days. Before the end of the season he will be perhaps one of the luminaries of the squad.

YALE FOLLOWERS FEAR DARTMOUTH ELEVEN MAY SPRING SURPRISE

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Sensing another upset, interest in the weak and gridiron contests has veered sharply to New Haven, where Yale and Dartmouth will clash.

The Green swept through its preliminary games with a majesty that has fathered songs and cheers for "go out and clean up" this season. Yale, standing in the path, must be destroyed.

Yale, with its great squad of 1923 disrupted by graduation and ineligibility rules, has not been impressive in its reconstruction. Colgate's squad of 25 players left yesterday for Lincoln, Neb., to meet the Nebraska eleven on Saturday. Upon their arrival in Chicago today Yale Colgate players are to have a short practice on Stagg field.

A rally of Notre Dame alumni will be held here tomorrow night to rehearse songs and cheers for the game Saturday between Notre Dame and West Point. The Notre Dame squad of 46 men tonight after afternoon will engage in a signal drill on the polo field at the West Chester-Biltmore Country Club, where the squad will spend the night.

The course which Mrs. Casriel made in 18 is 1216 yards long and was traversed by Jack Blackley, Kansas, holds the professional record with a 66 and Chick Evans the amateur with a 70 score.

ILLINOIS AND ARMY SHOULD WIN SATURDAY, ROCKNE WRITES

Notre Dame Coach Fears
His Own Team's Line Will Be Unable to Stop Cadets

Wolverines, Forced to Disclose Their "Ace," in Game With Michigan Aggies, Will Encounter Wonderful Offense in "Red" Grange and Other Stars.

By Knute Rockne,
Notre Dame University Football Coach.

The eyes of the Middle West turn to Urbana, Saturday, for the Illinois-Michigan game. The Illini seems to have the edge, right now, but the game is sure to be nip and tuck, with "Red" Grange as the possible deciding factor.

Yost has built a special defense for Grange and will stop him, most of the afternoon. This lad is resourceful, though, and may "one" at any time. It will be a great game between a great defensive and a fine offensive team. I am inclined to favor slightly the offensive team.

The Michigan Aggies gumbled up the game, last Saturday, by losing to the Wolverines. The game was waged on terms to which four minutes of the final quarter were left. The Michigan Aggies, last Saturday, were defeated by the Wolverines, 14-0.

There is a chance that Ohio Wesleyan will worry Ohio State; but Iowa should win easily from Lawrence.

It looks like Army's Year. Notre Dame meets Army at the Polo Grounds, New York, in their annual battle. Coach McEwan of Army has a fine array of talent in Hewitt, Wilson, Wood, Garbisch and company, and should win.

Our team has not shown anything this fall except a backfield, and no backfield can go without a line to lift the enemy out of the way. No forward pass attack is good, unless accompanied by a strong attack. The Notre Dame line will have to show vast improvement Saturday or the Army will win.

Notre Dame showed very little against Washburn last Saturday and the game was closer than the score indicated.

Colgate has a great back in Tryon, but may need more than that to down Nebraska, at Lincoln. Missouri can beat Ames by stopping the Behn brothers and Roberts. On the Kansas-Kansas Aggies game depends the future of Bachman's team in the Valley fair.

Kansas does not seem to be as strong as usual. Drake meets Grinnell and looks the stronger.

Referees too technical. I have always been a staunch advocate of backing up officials to the limit. Good officials are necessary for good football. But from letters I have received from other coaches, and from my own observation, it appears that officials this fall are becoming too technical. I do not believe this is for the best interest of football. The public comes to see two football teams play football, and not to hear what sounds like band practice, because four officials keep up a constant tooting of their horns.

I sincerely hoped that football will not drop to the level of basketball, which is now little more than an officials' contest.

Missouri Eleven Departs for Ames

Players in Condition for Important Game With Cyclones Saturday.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 16.—The University of Missouri football team of 23 men, accompanied by Coach Brewster, director of athletics, Coaches Gwinn Henry and Kipke, will depart on a special train tonight for Ames, Ia., where the Tigers meet the Iowa College eleven Saturday afternoon.

The Missouri squad will stop in Des Moines, and will hold a final signal drill on the Drake University field there.

Members of the team who will make the trip include Captain Bond, Thomas, Jackson, Swafford, Tuttle, Simpson, Moulder, Hicks, O'Sullivan, and Underhill. The line was as follows: Smith and Johnson, centers; Van Dyne, Star-ford, Lindenmeyer and Walker, tackles; Richerson, Palermo, Lewis, Etter and Gibson, guards; and Walsh, Cogilizer and Bacchus, ends.

Although the Missouri squad has had some scrimmages this week, most of it against Iowa State plays in the hands of the freshmen, the greater part of it has been of the mock variety, as Coach Henry has been handling his men very carefully in an effort to bring them to top condition for the encounter.

Thomas and Whitman, two members of the Tiger backfield which started against Chicago, have been given almost a complete rest since that encounter, and will probably be in the opening lineup against the Cyclones. Whitman, who is playing his second year of varsity football, adds experience and passing ability to the backfield, while Thomas is a good line smasher.

Whether or not Adams will get into the game Saturday will depend upon the fortunes of the Bengals as the game progresses. At the start of football practice Adams promised to be a sensation of the Tiger backfield, but a shoulder injury the first night of scrimmage kept him on the side lines until this week.

True Life Stories.

SAM LANGFORD'S refreshing stories of ring life, which have been appearing in the Sunday Sport Section of the Post-Dispatch, may seem to reflect a grade of humor inconsistent with "Tham's" profession.

Those in St. Louis who knew him well, however, say that they fit in perfectly with Sam's keen wit and happy outlook on life.

Harry Sharpe, who refereed several of Sam's local appearances, tells of two instances that bear out this view:

"Sam," said Sharpe, "had just been knocked down by a terrific jab, landed by Harry Willis, in one of his fights in this city. Sam clung desperately and weathered the round, but everybody thought he was about all done. However, to the amazement of all he waved away his seconds who offered him a stool, and stood up in his corner, declining all recuperative treatment, and apparently eager to get back at his opponent."

"Sam got through all right; but after the fight, still wondering, I asked him if Willis' punch had hurt him."

"Hur? That was the hurtfullest punch I ever took," Sam said. "Well, why didn't you sit down and let your seconds help you?"

"Mistah Sharpe, if this nigger had even set down, three niggers couldn't never have got him up again."

"Sam was AFRAID to sit down!"

Knockouts on Schedule.

ON other occasions he was fighting John Lester Johnson at the Future City A. C. Sam did not like to hurt anybody and he was boxing along taking his time and not extending himself.

"But his manager, Joe Woodman, wanted to get a late train back East, that night, and Sam's tactics made him nervous."

"Hey, Sam! You're going to make us miss that train!" he whispered.

"No, indeed, Mistah Joe, we all will get that train after the next round."

"And sure enough they dragged the remains of John Lester to his corner about one minute after the following round began."

Call for Al Wasem!

AFTER a desperate struggle it seems that Strangler Ed Lewis has again successfully defended his mat title, against Jandira Gobar and Kotonarous. His next "desperate defense" will be against Karl Sampson, who ever Carlo may be.

In line with the daredevil character of the risks Lewis is taking in his title matches, we suggest that he take on Al Wasem, Max Lutberg or Speedy Schaefer.

Is It to Be Hornsby?

ROGERS HORNSBY has not yet been honored by the National League Trophy Commission, but he will be. Dazy Vance's failure under pressure near the close of the season, clinched the fact.

But there may be more in store for Rogers than a certificate and a $1000 present. With the report of Rickey's proposed retirement next year as playing manager, comes another that Hornsby is to be made leader with a salary hovering around the $30,000 mark.

Illini Crippled
For Battle With Michigan Eleven

Ineligibility and Injury Will Keep Out Two Stars; Others on Hospital List.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Oct. 16.—Coach Zuppke yesterday gave his University of Illinois football squad its final hard workout prior to the Michigan game here, Saturday afternoon.

After practice last night the squad was taken to the Champaign Country Club where they will be quartered until shortly before the game.

A light workout will be given them there, Friday, Zuppke always takes his team to a quiet spot, during the annual homecoming, in order to keep them from the huge crowd.

Michigan will arrive here early Friday morning and will be taken to the Urbana Country Club.

The loss of Crawford last week on account of ineligibility, the injuries to Shively, guard and Captain Rokusek and Kassel, end man, have somewhat crippled the Illini.

Slimmer will fill in at guard in place of Shively, and in case Rokusek and Kassel are unable to play, substitutes must take their places.

On top of this, Earl Britton, fullback and Illini kicker, made a muff last evening while booting the ball and his foot struck the ground instead of the ball and injured his instep. He may be O. K. by Saturday.

confirmation. But, all things considered, Rickey might go further and fare worse. Hornsby is a man of few words, but mighty deeds. He may lack knowledge of the theory and mathematics of inside baseball, so dear to the heart of Branch; but he can tell the player what to do in a pinch and, better still, show him how it's done.

Object lessons best theories any day, on ball field or in classroom.

Here's to "The Boys!"

THE boys are at it again. Out at Algonquin the 70-year-old kids recently played their first "senior" game. The boys are at it again. Out at Algonquin the 70-year-old kids recently played their first "senior" game.

The "colts" ranged in years from 50 to over 70 and they probably will become real golfers, when they get their full growth.

And don't laugh at their performances, for you may be surprised a bit. The "boys" wielded a mean maul, even if they were a little short with the wood.

At 50 the golfer is just getting his stride. If you think not we point to you Kid Harry Vardon, and Young Ted Ray, British players, now in the shadow of the sixties; Braid who is past that, and Taylor who is almost at the limit of three score and ten. Any one of these men can make par look like bogey, on a good day.

In fact, the senior tournament ought to prove one of the features of coming years and deserves more prominence and notice than was accorded its first venture.

Who Got 'Em?

TEX RICKARD'S financial statement shows he lost $5000 on the Willis-Firpo fight, but fails to account for $55,000 in the list of expenses published by press dispatches. Can it be that New York too is going in for Velled Profits?

Almost Emaciated.

REPORTS from Lincoln say that the Nebraska football eleven, noted for his "Eskies," is lighter this year. We gather that instead of average over 190 pounds, the squad has shrunk to a mere 189½.

Minnesota Game to Either Make Or Break Wisconsin, Perry Says

Material of a High Type Is Available, but Eleven Has Not "Found" Itself—Several Stars Out of Saturday's Lineup Owing to Injuries.

By Lawrence Perry.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 16.—Wisconsin is a team that has yet to find itself mentally and physically. The feeling is that the eleven will make or break itself against a really formidable Minnesota team, next Saturday.

The Badgers came a dreadful cropper against Coe; and when they face Minnesota this week it will be seen how gamely and manfully they have reacted from the jolt of that tie game, that moral defeat, last Saturday.

Badgers Not at Their Best.

Frankly it would seem from impressions gained through a visit to Camp Randall today that Wisconsin has been in better condition and better mood for the important Minnesota game than at the present time. The team hasn't "found" itself as yet. But the material is there.

The problem which Jack Ryan and his assistant coaches have had to meet has involved a green line and a backfield in need of a lot of developing. In the forward wall, only two men, Biebertstein and Leckmeyer, at guard and center are playing the positions they regularly occupied in 1923. And neither of them has yet attained the standard set last year.

Nelson, who played end last season, is now in at left tackle, and most of the other line positions are in pretty much of an experimental state.

Backfield Is Not Proved.

The backfield which will start against Minnesota will consist of Capt. Harris, Leo Harmon, Doyle Harmon and Larson, who will play

O. Anderson of Australia in the world's tennis ranking.

LOYOLA CHANGES ITS STYLE OF ATTACK
FOR BILLIKEN GAME

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—In preparing for its game with St. Louis University Saturday, the Loyola varsity yesterday was opposed by the scrum team, which used St. Louis plays effectively, making large gains through the varsity line, much to the disappointment of Coach Kiley.

O. Jay Larson, assistant coach, who scouted St. Louis in action against the Rolla Miners Saturday, spoke highly of the St. Louis line, saying that it would be the best Loyola would meet this year and praised the work of Ramacciotti. Kiley realizes that last year's team was not taken seriously by the Billikens, and therefore throw a scare into the St. Louis camp.

Capt. Marv Adams has been the most consistent ground gainer for the Loyola team, while Stuckey, passing to Bush has been the most successful passing combination.

But Adams, whose plunges worried the Billikens last year, has been on the injured list most of the year and in last Saturday's game developed a "Charley horse" which may disable him.

Coach Kiley has been working on new formations in hopes that he can use them instead of the Notre Dame style of play, with which the Billikens are familiar.

FUR SALES TOTAL $608,000; NEW SEALS BRING HIGH PRICES

Chatagne O'or, New Golden Chestnut Skins, Bring Premium at Auction Here

Fur buyers representing New York, London, Paris and other manufacturing centers yesterday paid the United States Government $50,000 just to have a novelty.

That was approximately the bonus paid by buyers for the new Chatagne O'or, or Golden Chestnut sealskins, yesterday placed on the market for the first time when the Fokke Fur Co. offered them in the auction room of the Fur Exchange building at Fourth and Market streets. Cost of production and intrinsic worth are identical whether the furs be black or brown. The $35,333 received for 1945 Chatagne O'or skins represented just about $50,000 more than an equal number of black furs of the same quality brought.

Even so there was a distinct advance in market prices over the sales in New York last April—an advance of 20 to 25 per cent on the smaller and medium black sealskins, and of about 35 per cent on the larger furs.

Yesterday's sales totaled for the Government account, $508,335, approximately $100,000 more than had been expected. The 1010 raw salted sealskins brought $7983; 14-136 black Alaska fur seal skins, dressed, dyed, machined and finished, went for $187,015; in the Chatagne O'or, 1845 sold for $35-333; while for Government account 787 blue foxes brought $40,000; 15 white foxes $639, and four rare sea otters, $1040.

vestigator of the Postoffice Department, who is credited with having cleared up the $2,000,000 mail robbery at Rondout, Ill., last June 12, who caused the arrest of Inspector William F. ("Burr") Faber
in connection with the case, died Monday at a hospital here after an operation for gonorrhea. Lemon came to Baltimore about 10 days ago to undergo the operation. He had been in the Government service 29 years, 17 years of that time in the postal inspection service. Besides his widow, he is survived by a daughter and two sons.

Tommy Graham Chose the Good Janesville

Tommy thus proved his good judgment, for, with his earned Janesville, he can now go faster and farther than any rival in speed or endurance contest.

Only a ball-bearing Coaster Wagon can keep the pace that Tommy's Janesville can set. And in these days of ruinous price-cutting competition not many ball-bearing Coaster Wagons survive.

If you want a Coaster Wagon that inspires real pride in ownership, and if you are willing to work for it in spare time hours, follow the example of this hustling lad. Enroll now — Today!

The special October Prize Combination includes the Good Janesville and a pair of Sherwood Steel Racers.

OCTOBER 18, 1924
REPUBLICAN RALLY IN SOUTH ST. LOUIS TOMORROW NIGHT
Demonstration to La Follette Appeal for German-American Support Sought.
As a counter-demonstration to the Callesum rally addressed by Senator La Follette, Tuesday evening, in which a special appeal was made to voters of German lineage, arrangements were announced today for the holding of a Republican rally at Tower Grove Turner Hall, 1646 Junata street, tomorrow night, in which eight South St.
Louis ward organizations will participate. They are the Ninth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth and Twenty-fourth wards.
Fred C. Delpore, Republican City Committeeman from the Fifteenth Ward, is general chairman of the demonstration. He said today the demonstration was planned as a challenge to the claims of the supporters of La Follette-Wheeler presidential ticket, that South St.
Louis voters of German extraction will desert the Republican party in great numbers.
Preceding the rally there will be a parade of automobiles, in which cars, it is announced, will participate, and several brass bands.
The parade will form at Grand boulevard and Meramec street.
Henry A. Kersting, former president of the German-American Alliance, will preside at the rally, and the chief speakers will be former Congressman William A. Rodenberg of East St. Louis, and Sam A.
Baker, Republican nominee for governor.

TORY VICTORY IN BRITISH ELECTION IS A PROBABILITY

Alliance Between Liberals and Conservatives Expected to Cost the Labor Party Many Seats.

By JOHN L. BALDERSTON, London Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and the New York World.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—Labor will have to be 500,000 votes stronger in this election than she was a year ago to retain as many House of Commons seats as she has now. This is because in many constituencies, where there were three candidates in 1923, either the Liberal or Tory man has withdrawn to concentrate the fight against Labor.

Heavy Tory gains and Liberal losses and probably some diminution in Labor's strength is the indication at present.

As a compliment to former Premier Asquith and Sir John Simon, Liberal leaders, the Tory candidates against them have been withdrawn. This insures the election of both. It was doubtful before in a three-cornered race. In dozens of other constituencies either Tory or Liberal is withdrawing.

Only Two Parties in Future. Headquarters of both parties deny any participation in these arrangements, which are ascribed to purely local sentiment. But evidence accumulates that leaders of both parties are secretly behind the effort to get Labor seats regardless of whether a Liberal or Tory gets it. Labor probably cannot overcome this handicap at this election, but it gives much color to their boast that in the future there will be only two parties—Labor and another.

The master mind behind the Liberal movement toward combination is former Premier Lloyd George. Most Tories, even those opposed to coalition, welcome the arrangement, as they believe Liberals are losing ground and a Tory majority in the next House is possible.

Big Tory Plurality Likely. A more probable result will be a big Tory plurality, which will give Lloyd George, Winston Churchill, Lord Birkenhead, Sir Robert Horne and Austen Chamberlain a chance to revive coalition. But many Liberals are bitterly opposed to this secret but rather obvious alliance, and many prefer Labor to Conservatism. This may result in a Liberal split, one part joining the moderate Laborites and the other joining the Tories in a coalition cabinet.

Thousands of election speeches are being given all over the country and the campaign is in full swing, with just two weeks until election. Stanley Baldwin, Tory chief, opened his campaign in London last night, and Lloyd George and Asquith are in their constituencies.

Baldwin Denounces Labor's Plan of National Ownership. By the Associated Press. LONDON, Oct. 14.—Former Premier Baldwin opened his campaign for Parliament yesterday by addressing a large meeting in Queen's Hall, during which he ridiculed what he characterized as the Labor Government's universal plan of national ownership and national control to set things right.

Baldwin described the Labor Ministry as "cheap jacks of politics, always full of enthusiasm, but never doing anything." He pictured Premier MacDonald as being overborne and helpless in the hands of extreme Socialists of his party, and predicted that Labor administration never would accomplish anything until it "killed this old man of the sea."

Baldwin's speech constituted the general theme of the Conservative and Liberal speakers in the campaign, while, on the other hand, the speeches of the Laborites mostly dwell upon what they call "the unholy pact" between the Liberals and the Conservatives to keep labor out of power.

Conflict Between Systems. Minister of Health Wheatley, who is regarded as one of the rising men in the labor administration, commenting on the situation today, said he regarded Premier Lloyd George's declaration of war on labor as a public announcement that labor could not be bought. The Minister added that politics nowadays was a conflict, not between men, but between systems. Competitive capitalism was on trial for its life. He declared that former Premier Asquith would need all his oratorical powers to keep Liberal coalition down.

The Liberal newspapers are becoming anxious over the implications of the pact, which gives the speakers for the Laborites the chance to report the pact as a union of capitalistic interests against labor. These papers urge the extreme importance of Liberal parties preserving its complete independence. They declare that any other policy would be suicidal.

Geddes Enters Campaign. Sir Auckland Geddes, former Ambassador to the United States, has come out of his long political retirement to deliver addresses at a number of Conservative meetings.

The Man on the Sandbox

TWO GOOD ONES.

THREE rousing cheers for Epinard!
Three times he met defeat;
He found the picking very hard
But he was hard to beat.
It always was the field agin
The champion nag of France;
He had the speed and heart to win
But didn't have a chance.

All hail the mighty Saracen,
A game and noble nag;
In almost record time he ran While bringing in the swag.
To him the others had to bow
And fight for second place;
They say his mother pulled a plow
But that is no disgrace.

NO EXPERT.

Landis points to the President's effusive praises of the late world's series in refutation of Ban Johnson's charge that the series should have been called off. But then you know that Cal was about the last man in the United States to see any evidences of turpitude in Teapot Dome.

Anyhow, Georges Carpentier and Epinard have taken quite a wad of second money out of this country.

In fact, it seems as though the name of the French horse should be Epinard the Second.

Spartacus' address to the Romans pales into piffle compared to Calvin's speech to the pickle employees. Cal was there 57 ways from the jack.

See where a Princeton cheer leader threw his arm out of joint Next thing we know Walter John son will be getting a charley horse in one of his vocal chords.

HOT STUFF.

Coolidge's radio speech to the pickle makers was heard in England. It was all the mustard.

The Prince of Wales visited the stockyards in Chicago to get a line on the place where the "roast beef of Old England" comes from.

During his sojourn in America
one of the Prince's younger brothers is battling for him at unwilling, flag-raising and corner stone layings. A country is no stronger than its second line of defense.

The man on the sandbox says President Coolidge is a man of destiny. He doesn't know where he is going but he's on his way.

A valiant effort is being made to revive the downtown night life of St. Louis. Shades of Tony Faust, Phil Macquette and Nat Sebastian! It can't be done.

QUITE SO.

Chumleigh: I see the Labor party is out.

Dumleigh: Out of what, old chap?

Chumleigh: Out of luck.

The straw vote doesn't mean anything in the straw belt. It's the wheat vote that counts.

The Literary Digest ought to get out a shredded wheat vote. Good for the digestion.

Straw votes are only good for stuffing ballot boxes.

A LUCKY THING FOR ROMEO.—By IRVIN S. COBB.
GEORGE ADE had a friend out in Indiana whose name was Romeo Johnson. Mr. Johnson was, in all regards, a worthwhile person, but he did not in the least resemble the popular conception of a Romeo. This fact sometimes gave rise to questions.
One day Mr. Johnson was making explanations.
"Just before I arrived," he stated, "my father happened to be in Chicago and saw a performance of 'Romeo and Juliet,' with an all-star cast. It impressed him so much that he named me Romeo."
One of the listening group broke in:
"It's a good thing that the play wasn't 'Pygmalion and Galatea!'"

SHENANDOAH, OUTRIDING GALE, IS SAILING PACIFIC COAST

Thousands Gazing Skyward
in San Francisco Disappointed When Cruise Fails to Visit City.

BUCKING STORM CUTS DOWN SPEED

Ship Goes on Toward Cam-Lewis, Wash., and Will Call at Golden Gate Ca-on Return Trip.

By The Associated Press.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—
The navy dirigible Shenandoah delayed along the California coast
by storms and head winds encountered last night on her trip from San Diego to Camp Leach, Wash., today put a message in the air to Mayor James R. Rolph Jr. saying the aircraft would not visit San Francisco until her return trip.

The Shenandoah continued on her way up the California coast without entering San Francisco Bay while thousands of disappointed early risers watched from house-tops for the expected initial appearance here of the giant aircraft.

The Shenandoah passed over Fort Bragg, Cal., 170 miles north of here, at 10 o'clock and was sighted off Fort Gordo at 12:30
p. m.

Landedown's Message.
Copies of the message received by Mayor Rolph were also addressed to the commandant of the Twelfth Naval District, Army of Signal at Camp Leach, Wash., and were distributed by the navy announcement from the dirigible commander. A number of airplanes were ready to take off from the field, which is just inside the Golden Gate, to fly out and photograph the Shenandoah as she entered San Francisco Bay.

The message from Commander Landedown said: "Passing San Francisco. Regret steady head winds prevented. Shenandoah reaching San Francisco yesterday before sunset. Will come to San Francisco on return to San Diego."
As the news was relayed throughout the city by telephone calls to newspaper offices and the disappointed city settled down to a rainy time day, the Shenandoah was reported off Point Reyes at 6:30 a.
m., 23 miles north of San Francisco.

The aircraft, which was released into the air from her San Diego North Island base, sailed northward yesterday morning, dropped behind her schedule after leaving Los Angeles, when she nosed into storm head winds.

Fog from the ocean and rain from the mountains enveloped the Shenandoah as she sailed northward between San Diego and Los Angeles yesterday. Head winds of 10 to 15 miles an hour cut the speed to 5 miles an hour. Commander Landedown laid the course for the miles off shore and 2000 feet in the air. The coast was followed at San Pedro, where it passed over the fleet then headed for Los Angeles and returned to the coast to continue northward. The weather was raw and chilly.

Disappointed thousands sat on the house-tops here from dusk yesterday until after midnight awaiting her appearance.

Bucking the Gale.
Soon after midnight the communications department of the Marine Navy Yard announced that a radio message had been received from the Shenandoah at 10 o'clock in which the air-craft commander said he expected to reach San Francisco about daylight.
A radio message was picked up by the aircraft by the army signal corps field radio station at Camp Leach asking for weather reports in the vicinity of Central California.

"Bucking strong gale just west of San Luis Obispo," the message said. The Shenandoah was approximately 90 miles north of San Francisco approaching Monterey at 1:25 a. m., according to advices received by the Western Union Telegraph Co.
Leaving the storm in its wake just after midnight, the Shenandoah nosed its way into favorable weather today, according to the official forecast. The dirigible planned to hug the coast line, cruising close to the coast line, and after touching Eureka, Cal., and Astoria, Ore., before heading inland.
